

BWA president emphasizes the priesthood of believers

May 16, 2025

The priesthood of believers not only serves as a doctrinal distinctive for Baptists, but also operates as a guiding principle for daily living and for “being the church,” Baptist World Alliance President Tomás Mackey told a gathering at Dallas Baptist University.

HSU therapy program unlocks Parkinson voices

May 16, 2025

Hardin-Simmons University’s speech-language pathology program will adopt a new therapy program in the fall to support individuals living with Parkinson’s and related neurological disorders.

Johnny Hunt/SBC trial on hold for now

May 16, 2025

In an order issued May 12, Judge William L. Campbell Jr. announced the jury trial in the lawsuit brought by Johnny Hunt against the Southern Baptist Convention and others has been canceled. The trial was set to begin June 17.

Can the Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission survive?

May 16, 2025

During their annual meeting in Dallas next month, Southern Baptists will engage in lively debate about a host of issues. Among those issues: what to do with the Southern Baptist Convention's Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission.

Forced out at Myers Park, Boswell starts new church

May 16, 2025

Ben Boswell was forced to resign as senior pastor of Myers Park Baptist Church in Charlotte, N.C. Now, he is starting a new church focused on social justice issues.

Around the State: Texas Baptist students graduate

May 16, 2025

Houston Christian University held its 2025 spring commencement ceremonies May 10, marking the 59th year degrees have been awarded to graduating students.

U.S. the outlier in biblical reverence in 'secular west'

May 16, 2025

From a global vantage point unique to its study of the Bible's impact on U.S. adults, the American Bible Society said Americans revere Scripture, faith and church more than others in a geographical cluster described as the "Secular West."

Constance “Connie” Gayle Billinger Davis

May 16, 2025

Constance “Connie” Gayle Billinger Davis of Abilene, teacher and social worker, died May 8. She was 70.

Senate bill introduced to move lottery administration

May 16, 2025

The Texas lawmaker who authored a bill to abolish the Texas Lottery filed alternative legislation May 13 that would dissolve the Texas Lottery Commission and move regulation of the lottery to another state agency.

Podcast reflects on the first 100

days of Trump

May 16, 2025

Good Faith podcast host Curtis Chang recently sat down with New York Times columnist David French and Russell Moore, editor in chief of Christianity Today, for a Zoom discussion about the first 100 days of President Trump's second term.

Former Southern Baptist Josh Buice quits G3 Conference

May 16, 2025

Josh Buice, pastor of Pray's Mill Baptist Church in Douglasville, Ga., was suspended by his church for running fake social media accounts that criticized his church's elders and other pastors. He resigned as president of the GC3 Conference, which he founded.

Religious coercion lawsuit in Chicago schools settled

May 16, 2025

The Chicago Board of Education and New York's David Lynch Foundation

have agreed to settle a three-year-long class-action lawsuit that alleged public high school students were forced to practice Hindu rituals through the guise of a meditation program.