

Texans on Mission offer church leader training in Uganda

March 7, 2025

Bible studies are forming in the villages of northern Uganda because of the water drilling ministry of Texans on Mission. Now, Texans on Mission is stepping up to provide training for local church leaders.

Crisis deepens but Texas Baptists send aid to east Congo

March 7, 2025

The humanitarian crisis in the eastern Democratic Republic of Congo grows worse, but Texas Baptists are responding to needs there.

Babin sees immigration service as ministry and mission

March 7, 2025

In an ongoing effort to reach local immigrant families, Randy Babin has made it his mission to help community members who cannot afford an attorney navigate immigration law.

Citizenship in heaven must impact citizenship here

March 7, 2025

Christians can change the world by practicing “radical obedience to Jesus,” Pastor Steve Bezner of Houston Northwest Baptist Church told participants at Christian Life Commission Advocacy Day in Austin.

Queen given 1-year supervised release, fined

March 7, 2025

Former Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary interim provost Matt Queen received a judgment of time served with one year of supervised release, six months of home confinement and a $2,000 fine related to a federal investigation of the SBC regarding sexual abuse.

SBC may revisit amendment about female pastors

March 7, 2025

Austin pastor Juan Sanchez is urging Southern Baptists to re-visit an amendment at their annual meeting this June that addresses the definition of pastor/elder/overseer in the Southern Baptist Convention constitution.

Why is the SBC still arguing about women pastors?

March 7, 2025

The Southern Baptist Convention's credentials committee had a problem relating to its task of determining whether to expel one of the denomination's largest churches for violating the SBC's ban on women serving as pastors.

Around the State: Texas Senate

commends 75 years of CLC advocacy

March 7, 2025

Texas Baptists Christian Life Commission was recognized March 4 by the Texas Senate, in the 89th Legislative Session, with a resolution commemorating 75 years of the CLC.

‘Love’ drew public school advocates to Austin

March 7, 2025

Pastors, rabbis and others who met at First Baptist Church in Austin before visiting lawmakers at the Texas Capitol agreed one thing led them there—love for children and the public schools that educate them.

Friends of Maston consider biblical principles of engagement

March 7, 2025

The T.B. Maston Foundation considered biblical principles for why and how Christians should engage in the public square.

BWA and African Baptists offer prayer for Congo Christians

March 7, 2025

Leaders of the Baptist World Alliance and the All Africa Baptist Fellowship sent messages last week to Baptists in the eastern Democratic Republic of Congo, expressing “deep sorrow and continued solidarity with you during this time of crisis and suffering.”

Kingdom Baits aims to bring Jesus to saltwater anglers

March 7, 2025

Greg Blank, Kingdom Baits founder and student at Stark Seminary and College, didn't grow up in church. He grew up fishing.