

UMHB students serve NC disaster survivors

December 18, 2024

A life on mission must begin somewhere. For several University of Mary Hardin-Baylor students, it began this December with Texans on Mission in North Carolina.

Nigerian Christians fear violence as Christmas approaches

December 18, 2024

Christians in Nigeria plan to celebrate Christmas amid fear of a repeat of violence that claimed at least 160 lives in Nigeria's Middle Belt at Christmastime in 2023 and dozens in northern Nigeria during the holidays in 2022, international religious liberty advocates reported.

Around the State: Wayland announces tuition freeze

December 18, 2024

Wayland Baptist University President Donna Hedgepath announced a university-wide tuition freeze for the 2025-2026 academic year.

A proposal, a loss and an answered prayer at camp

December 18, 2024

Abel Kent had one thing on his mind: Asking his girlfriend Katelin “Kat” Weikel to marry him. The pair were both sponsors of youth attending Royal Ambassadors Campout and Missions Mania at Latham Springs Camp and Retreat Center in Aquilla.

Children still at heart of Texas Baptist Children’s Home

December 18, 2024

Almost 75 years after a couple donated 112 acres of Round Rock farmland to enable Texas Baptists to build a home for abused and neglected children, Texas Baptist Children's Home has changed a lot, but one thing has stayed constant.

Texans on Mission: Christmas looks different in Uganda

December 18, 2024

Mission trips often reveal contrasts—differences between things at home and those far away. Mikey Osborne and his family saw Christmas differently on a recent trip to Uganda.

This Christmas in Nazareth, peace is harder to find

December 18, 2024

Nazareth has few public Christmas decorations this year, marking the second year in a row Jesus' hometown has been precluded by wartime conditions from traditional celebrations honoring the birthday of its most notable resident of all time.

Report links Bible engagement, generosity and happiness

December 18, 2024

Bible-engaged Christians are the most charitable people in the United States, and giving increases happiness among the generous, the American Bible Society said in releasing the last chapter of the 2024 State of the Bible.

Faith leaders worried about immigration raids at churches

December 18, 2024

Faith leaders are reacting with concern to a report President-elect Donald Trump plans to rescind a long-standing policy that discourages immigration officials from conducting raids at churches, schools and hospitals.

Collectable cards find funds disaster relief

December 18, 2024

A man donated $10,000 to Texans on Mission after profiting off rare trading cards he found in a dumpster 25 years ago.

New hymnal helps engage Scripture word for word

December 18, 2024

Twelve years ago, Randall Goodgame decided to help his kids memorize weekly Scripture verses in a way that came naturally to him—writing songs.

Faith leaders urge Biden to empty federal death row

December 18, 2024

A group of faith leaders, activists, law enforcement officials and families of murder victims called on President Joe Biden to spare the lives of about 40 inmates currently on death row in federal prisons.