

Anti-terror financing bill may punish nonprofits

November 22, 2024

Over the objections of religious groups, the U.S. House of Representatives approved a bill that would enable the secretary of the Treasury to rescind the tax-exempt status of any nonprofits the secretary concludes are “terrorist-supporting organizations.”

Ministry helps widows overcome loss, find purpose

November 22, 2024

Overcomers, a ministry of First Baptist Church in Grand Prairie, encourages widows to overcome fear, anxiety, loneliness, doubt, adversity and worries about how to provide for themselves.

Mexican Baptists move when authorities fail to honor rights

November 22, 2024

Members of a Baptist church in Mexico's Hidalgo State who were displaced in April have moved to neighboring Veracruz State after local officials failed to honor their religious freedom rights, an international human rights group reported.

Activist urges mercy for man convicted of killing pastor

November 22, 2024

The spiritual adviser of Steven Nelson—who was convicted of murdering Arlington Pastor Clint Dobson and is scheduled for execution—not only is pleading for mercy from the state, but also grace from some of those most deeply wounded by his actions.

Trump selects Baptist chaplain to lead VA

November 22, 2024

President-elect Donald Trump has nominated a Baptist chaplain and former pastor to be the next head of the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Obituary: Mike Melcher

November 22, 2024

Mike Melcher of Plainview, former director of advancement at Wayland Baptist University, died Nov. 4 in Dallas. He was 72.

Red Letter Christian Tony Campolo dead at age 89

November 22, 2024

Tony Campolo, an American Baptist minister and sociologist who spent decades trying to convince evangelicals and other Christians that their faith should motivate them to address social ills like poverty and racism, has died. He was 89.

Around the State: Rick Perry speaks at UMHB lecture

November 22, 2024

The University of Mary Hardin-Baylor welcomed former Gov. Rick Perry as the featured speaker for the 2024 McLane Lecture, Nov. 6.

Hedgepath installed as 14th president of Wayland

November 22, 2024

In a ceremony marked with tradition and faith, Donna Hedgepath officially was inaugurated as the 14th president of Wayland Baptist University, Nov. 18.

Bible study offers antidote to loneliness, study shows

November 22, 2024

The Bible protects against what the U.S. surgeon general has termed an “epidemic of loneliness” as harmful to health as smoking 15 cigarettes a day, the American Bible Society said in releasing its latest chapter of the 2024 State of the Bible.

Garland church ministers to Ukrainian refugee children

November 22, 2024

For the third consecutive year, volunteers from First Baptist Church in Garland will travel to eastern Europe to bring Christmas joy to Ukrainian refugee children.

Convención Bautista Hispana de Texas ha recibido una subvención significativa

November 22, 2024

Convención Bautista Hispana de Texas ha recibido una subvención de $1,249,884 de Lilly Endowment Inc. para ayudar a establecer “CANTA: Congregaciones Ayudando a Niños a ser Transformados en Adoradores”.