

Park Cities Baptist withdraws from SBC

October 29, 2024

Park Cities Baptist Church in Dallas—a prominent congregation situated in the affluent Highland Park/University Park area—voted to withdraw its affiliation with the Southern Baptist Convention.

40-year-old Arabic Church of Dallas reaches the world

October 29, 2024

Arabic Church of Dallas, whose pastors have trained leaders and cared for refugees around the world, celebrated 40 years on Oct. 27.

Wayland student mission trips made eternal difference

October 29, 2024

For native-born Alaskan youngsters Parker and Marty, Wayland Baptist University's nine-year investment in the Kenai Peninsula Sports Camp operated by Alaska Missions made a difference—an eternal difference.

Hispanic Christians condemn racist jokes at Trump rally

October 29, 2024

Amid outrage over racist jokes told at a Donald Trump campaign event, some Hispanic Christian leaders are raising questions about the candidate's standing with a crucial ethnic and religious demographic.

Call for reparations as a healing act of repentance

October 29, 2024

A white professor at a historically Black university considers reparations for slavery and segregation an essential act of biblical repentance that can lead to racial healing in the United States.

Florida hurricane relief: ‘You guys are such a blessing’

October 29, 2024

On a warm Florida day, Eunice eats lunch with her neighbor, Jackie. They laugh and smile as they tell jokes and stories.

Obituary: David L. Jester

October 29, 2024

David Linville Jester, former president of Wayland Baptist University, died at his home in Paris, Ky., on Oct. 14. He was 94.

Naomi House offers asylum seekers chance to flourish

October 29, 2024

When 2019 saw a surge of displaced people at the United States’ southern border one Waco church didn’t see a problem with the people.

Inmate turned playwright in his ‘comeback season’

October 29, 2024

Jamison Charles always considered himself a follower, and he “followed the crowd straight to prison,” But during his incarceration, he became a follower of Jesus Christ, and “tragedy turned to triumph,” he said.

Southern Baptist chief of Air Force chaplains retires

October 29, 2024

As Chaplain Major General Randy Kitchens thinks back over more than 30 years of chaplaincy ministry in the U.S. Air Force, it’s the opportunities he had to share Jesus that stand out.

Around the State: Miss Mary Hardin-Baylor crowned

October 29, 2024

Miss Nursing Student Association, Sophie Stockton, was named Miss Mary Hardin-Baylor 2025, Oct. 19, in the annual Miss MHB Pageant.

Porn use grows among Christians, study says

October 29, 2024

Christian men and women use pornography more today than in 2016 when Barna spotlighted the sin among pastors and congregants, an updated study found.