

School district settles suit with Tennessee ACLU

December 12, 2011

A Tennessee school district has settled a lawsuit over the proper role of religion in public schools. The Sumner County Board of Education voted Dec 6 to accept an agreement with the American Civil Liberties Union of Tennessee ending a lawsuit filed against school officials May 2.

Baylor's RG3 receives Heisman Trophy

December 12, 2011

Quarterback Robert Griffin III won the Heisman Trophy on Dec. 10, becoming the 77th recipient of college sports' highest award and the first in Baylor University's history.

Nursing students bring a dose of Christmas fun to Buckner afterschool programs

December 12, 2011

Nursing students from Texas Women's University and members of the Dallas Cake Club spread Christmas cheer at three Buckner afterschool programs in the Dallas area.

Balancing reality & reverence when Christmas falls on Sunday

December 12, 2011

"You mean we have to go to church Christmas Eve and Christmas morning?" Many worship leaders know their own children likely will ask that question this year.

Singer focuses on the reason for the season

December 12, 2011

Singer/songwriter Matt Wertz is helping listeners slow down and take time to reflect on the real reason for this season with his latest album, Snow Globe.

Books for the Border bound for Brownsville

December 12, 2011

Christmas will come a little early this year with gifts for 170 families living in the lower Rio Grande Valley. And their handmade, individually selected gifts never will go out of style and will continue to have an impact for years to come.

Candidates asked to sign pledge to give priority to religious freedom

December 12, 2011

An advocacy organization for persecuted Christians has asked the 2012 presidential candidates to sign a pledge stating they would make religious freedom a priority in the United States and overseas if they win the White House.

One-third of shelter residents newly homeless; often victims of violence

December 12, 2011

Nearly one in five clients of Christian rescue missions said they were victims of physical violence within the past year, a 6 percent jump from the previous year, according to a new survey.

Executive director search encourages DBU students to minister to the disabled

December 12, 2011

The importance of disability ministry and depending on God during suffering were the themes of Joni Eareckson Tada's message during a recent chapel service at Dallas Baptist University.

Catholic art finds unlikely home at Bob Jones University

December 12, 2011

Walking across the tidy campus of Bob Jones University, there's no obvious sign this bastion of Christian fundamentalism is home to one of the nation's largest collections of Renaissance and Baroque religious art from the heart of Catholic Europe.