

Band shares songs of salvation around the world

November 10, 2011

The contemporary Christian group No Other Name desires to reach the far corners of the world with its music and message so they can lift up the name of Jesus.

Faith Digest

November 10, 2011

American congregations have grown less healthy in the last decade, with fewer people in the pews and aging memberships, according to a new Hartford Seminary study.

Around the State

November 10, 2011

Graduates of East Texas Baptist University's nursing department earned a 100 percent pass rate on the national licensure test for registered nurses for the fourth consecutive year.

RAs at Italy church help combat illiteracy along Rio Grande

November 10, 2011

The RAs at Central Baptist Church in Italy built 15 bookcases to help fight illiteracy in Texas.

DBU students teach principles for life in Sierra Leone

November 10, 2011

Five Dallas Baptist University students in Ross O'Brien's international travel and management class recently put their education into practice in one of the world's poorest nations.

Chinese government awards Baptist missionary

November 10, 2011

An American Baptist missionary was the only foreigner among more than 30 recipients of a prestigious charity award granted recently by the government of Jiangsu Province, China.

Speakers chosen for New Baptist Covenant II gathering Nov. 17-19

November 10, 2011

Social activists Marian Wright Edelman and Tony Campolo will join former President Jimmy Carter and seven other speakers on the program of the New Baptist Covenant II, a Nov. 17-19 gathering of diverse Baptists in Atlanta that will be linked by satellite and Internet to dozens of viewing locations around the country, including sites in San Antonio and Oklahoma City.

BGCT OKs budget, rejects attempt to restore Baylor to full level

November 10, 2011

Messengers approved a flat $33.85 million budget for 2012, rejecting an attempt to restore more than $890,000 Baylor University loses next year.

Volunteers seek to ‘Ignite Hope’ in Amarillo during morning of missions

November 10, 2011

Sparks of hope spread throughout Amarillo as Texas Baptists participated in 12 mission endeavors across the city, taking the message of Christ to places like a community center, children's field day, high school lunch and college campus during the Baptist General Convention of Texas annual meeting.

Learning fair provides resources for Spanish-speaking parents

November 10, 2011

More than 15,000 Hispanic parents gathered at Feria Para Aprender in Dallas to learn how to improve their children's educational opportunities.