

SBC a cooperative ‘force for good,’ Jeff Iorg asserts

September 18, 2024

The Southern Baptist Convention is a diverse, cooperative “force for good” that is poised to move forward on mission, Jeff Iorg said at his installation as the eighth president of the SBC Executive Committee Sept. 16 in Nashville.

Obituary: Vernon Dee Stokes

September 18, 2024

Vernon Dee Stokes of Midland, longtime public educator and trustee of Wayland Baptist University, died Sept. 14. He was 85.

Obituary: John Theodore ‘Ted’ Sanders

September 18, 2024

John Theodore “Ted” Sanders, former trustee and distinguished alumnus of Wayland Baptist University, died Sept. 8 in Angel Fire, N.M. He was 82

Successful leaders accept help, says Joni Eareckson Tada

September 18, 2024

Good leaders often are told to play to their strengths and hide their weaknesses. That really never has worked for disability activist and nonprofit leader Joni Eareckson Tada.

Gen Z fearful, but Scripture reduces anxiety, study shows

September 18, 2024

Generation Z, the first to grow up with smartphones and tablets, is the most fearful and anxious of any age, the American Bible Society said in its latest release from the 2024 State of the Bible.

Springfield faith leaders stand with embattled migrants

September 18, 2024

When a comment about immigrants during a presidential debate thrust Springfield, Ohio, into the national spotlight, the city's faith community rallied in support of their Haitian immigrant neighbors.

Christian nationalists likely to support authoritarianism

September 18, 2024

Americans who hold Christian nationalist views are also likely to express support for forms of authoritarianism, according to a new report from the Public Religion Research Institute.

Tillie Burgin's vision: 'Take the church to the people'

September 18, 2024

For 38 years, Mission Arlington has existed to "take church to the people," founder and director Tillie Burgin explained.

Seminary alumni share memories of Wedgwood tragedy

September 18, 2024

Wedgwood Baptist Church in Fort Worth marked the 25th anniversary of a mass shooting that left eight people killed and seven wounded.

Chicago pastor emphasizes importance of resilience

September 18, 2024

Simultaneously leading two Chicago churches as pastor demands resilience rooted in biblical truth, Charlie Dates told participants at a Baylor University leadership conference.

Conference focuses on leadership for the long haul

September 18, 2024

True leaders not only build trust, but also draw upon trust to bring about transformation, author Tod Bolsinger told church and nonprofit leaders during a conference at Baylor University.

‘The devil is in the world again,’ events in Europe reveal

September 18, 2024

“The devil is in the world again” Constanze Stelzenmüller quoted a Catholic cardinal friend of hers as stating about growing tension in 2022.