

Baptist Briefs: Maggie Lee legacy lives on

October 1, 2010

The second annual “Maggie Lee for Good” day is scheduled Oct. 29—an emphasis on enlisting people to do at least one act of kindness on what would have marked Maggie Lee Henson’s 14th birthday.

---

UMHB students help with flood relief

October 1, 2010

After Tropical Storm Hermine dumped rain on Central Texas, students from the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor helped business and home owners in the area clean up in the storm’s aftermath.

---

Stuff Christians Like: An interview with Jon Acuff

October 1, 2010

Jon Acuff is the author of the satirical blog Stuff Christians Like and a book by the same title published by Zondervan.

---

Clergy sexual abuse ‘pervasive,’ co-author of study says

October 1, 2010

While newspapers carried headlines about high-profile sexual-coercion lawsuits filed against Atlanta mega-church pastor Eddie Long, a Baptist researcher said the problem of clergy sexual abuse is much larger than a few charismatic leaders who abuse their power.

---

Texas Tidbits

October 1, 2010

East Texas Baptist University’s board of trustees at their regular fall meeting approved curriculum for two new graduate programs—the Master of Arts in Religion degree and the Master of Education degree.

---

On the Move

October 1, 2010

Brad Borstadt has resigned as pastor of J-Bar-C Cowboy Church.

---

Around the State

October 1, 2010

Baylor University will be the site of the “Fantastical” church music conference Sept. 30 through Oct. 2 in Waco Hall. Award-winning Christian musician and Baylor graduate David Crowder will lead the conference.

---

Jimmy Carter discharged from hospital

October 1, 2010

---

Former President Jimmy Carter was discharged Sept. 30 after two nights in a Cleveland hospital for what doctors say was a stomach virus.

---

Baptist historians affirm individual conscience

October 1, 2010

A group of Baptist historians that meets annually to read and discuss early Baptist writings endorsed a statement affirming the role of individual conscience in Baptist life.

---

Board rejects study committee motion on challenging messengers

October 1, 2010

The Baptist General Convention of Texas Executive Board overwhelmingly rejected a study committee's proposal to change how the BGCT handles messenger-seating challenges at its annual meeting.

---

Annual meeting needs major overhaul, study committee asserts

October 1, 2010

The Baptist General Convention of Texas annual meeting needs an extreme makeover in focus and format, the chair of a study committee told the Baptist General Convention of Texas Executive Board.

---

Board recommends allowing some non-Baptist HBU trustees

October 1, 2010

Messengers to the Baptist General Convention of Texas annual meeting in McAllen next month will consider whether to allow Houston Baptist University to elect non-Baptists to its board of trustees.