

Texas Tidbits

August 26, 2010

Baylor University ranked in the top tier—No. 79 out of 262 schools—in the annual U.S. News and World Report list of top national universities.

On the Move

August 26, 2010

Brian Arnold to Hillcrest Church in Cedar Hill as associate minister of music and worship.

Faith Digest

August 26, 2010

Concerns about pollution and water quality have prompted an environmental advocacy group to call for banning baptisms in the lower Jordan River, where the Bible says Jesus was baptized by John the Baptist.

Around the State

August 26, 2010

Jim Denison, president of the Center for Informed Faith, will speak at the Sept. 2 fall convocation of Hardin-Simmons University.

New funding sources emerge for the Texas State BSM

August 26, 2010

When the Texas State University Baptist Student Ministry discovered it was losing $15,000 from Bluebonnet Baptist Association due to a redirecting of association priorities, BSM Director Abe Jaquez was convinced God would provide the funding. And he did exactly that.

Former drug, alcohol abuser finds freedom in Christ

August 26, 2010

After an adolescence spent in alcohol and drug abuse and a court-martial from the Air Force, Zack was in bondage until "God showed up" during a chapel service.

Seminary president says evolution 'incompatible' with Christian faith

August 26, 2010

Albert Mohler, president of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Ky., says evolution and Christianity are not compatible.

DeLoach, Jackson to be nominated for BGCT 2nd vice president

August 26, 2010

Texas Baptists will choose between a veteran missions educator and a retired layman who has been active in denominational life when they elect the next second vice president of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Lumberton youth pens prize-winning essay

August 26, 2010

Nathan Webb, a senior at Lumberton High School, won the grand prize in this year's Religious Liberty Essay Scholarship Contest, sponsored by the Religious Liberty Council of the Baptist Joint Committee.

Working up an appetite: Churches feed hungry in San Antonio

August 26, 2010

Baptist church participation in San Antonio Food Bank's summer feeding program showed a marked increase this year, and local hunger relief advocates insist it's a good thing.

Students, families minister during Kenya mission trip

August 26, 2010

A team of Wayland Baptist University students have returned from a three-week mission trip to Kenya, where they worked with students at the Christ-Like Academy and the Kenya Baptist Theological College.

Baptists give money for flood relief in Pakistan

August 26, 2010

Baptist groups in North America and Europe are donating money to assist flood victims in Pakistan.