

Our House, BCFS work together to serve homeless, at-risk youth

May 6, 2010

Our House and Baptist Child & Family Services have announced plans to work together to provide much needed transitional services to struggling young adults in Abilene.

Texas Tidbits

May 6, 2010

Pillars: A Celebration of Seniors, the first conference and retreat for senior adults sponsored by Baylor University's Truett Theological Seminary, will feature keynote speaker Grant Teaff, Baylor's former head football coach, and workshops on missions, grandparenting, estate planning and overcoming anxiety in personal evangelism.

Faith Digest

May 6, 2010

A preacher sharing his faith in a demonstrative manner on the Staten Island Ferry will be toning down his sermons after cutting a plea deal to a misdemeanor obstruction charge.

Around the State

May 6, 2010

Three Tarrant Association churches are teaming up to celebrate their adoption of the Celebrating Grace Hymnal with a hymnody workshop and joint congregational concert.

On the Move

May 6, 2010

Joel Bartlett to First Church in Sanger as co-youth minister.

Church uncovers, serves hidden hungry

May 6, 2010

Many would see an elementary school student stealing food off a teacher's desk as a behavioral problem. But there was a bigger problem, and First Baptist Church in Whitehouse stepped up to help resolve the issue.

University backs seminary president amid charges of misrepresentation

May 6, 2010

The president of Liberty Theological Seminary, who apologized in February for calling the head of the International Mission Board a liar, is now being questioned about his own testimony of conversion from radical Islam to Christianity.

Katrina evacuee graduates with honors from ETBU

May 6, 2010

Despite the loss of her home in New Orleans to Hurricane Katrina in 2005, Lynn Wartberg refused to allow a hurricane to stop her from achieving a life-long goal—earning a college degree.

Hospital, clinic partner to bring hope to working poor in Garland

May 6, 2010

Steven Arze, a member of Lake Pointe Church in Rockwall, serves as medical director of Hope Clinic, a Christian health care provider for the working poor in Garland, and works as director of the emergency department at Baylor Medical Center at Garland.

Bike Out Hunger cyclists ride 415 miles, raise $9,400 for hunger efforts

May 6, 2010

For Job Gonzalez, cycling 415 miles during the Bike Out Hunger tour April 19-24 wasn't just a test of his own strength and competition. It was a personal journey driven by the hungry children and families he sees daily as he rides through the colonias near his home in McAllen—areas that lack clean running water and adequate sewer systems.

Task force report urges SBC to free IMB to work in North America

May 6, 2010

The Great Commission Resurgence Task Force will ask the Southern Baptist Convention to give its International Mission Board freedom to evangelize unreached people groups on what had been the exclusive turf of the North American Mission Board.

Changes underscore Baylor's commitment to ministry of healing

May 6, 2010

Commitment to Christian healing ministry has guided Baylor Health Care System since its founding, but creation of an office of mission and ministry has given renewed emphasis to that defining sense of purpose, hospital officials said.