

On the Move

May 6, 2010

Joel Bartlett to First Church in Sanger as co-youth minister.

Church uncovers, serves hidden hungry

May 6, 2010

Many would see an elementary school student stealing food off a teacher's desk as a behavioral problem. But there was a bigger problem, and First Baptist Church in Whitehouse stepped up to help resolve the issue.

University backs seminary president amid charges of misrepresentation

May 6, 2010

The president of Liberty Theological Seminary, who apologized in February for calling the head of the International Mission Board a liar, is now being questioned about his own testimony of conversion from radical Islam to Christianity.

Katrina evacuee graduates with honors from ETBU

May 6, 2010

Despite the loss of her home in New Orleans to Hurricane Katrina in 2005, Lynn Wartberg refused to allow a hurricane to stop her from achieving a life-long goal—earning a college degree.

Hospital, clinic partner to bring hope to working poor in Garland

May 6, 2010

Steven Arze, a member of Lake Pointe Church in Rockwall, serves as medical director of Hope Clinic, a Christian health care provider for the working poor in Garland, and works as director of the emergency department at Baylor Medical Center at Garland.

Bike Out Hunger cyclists ride 415 miles, raise $9,400 for hunger efforts

May 6, 2010

For Job Gonzalez, cycling 415 miles during the Bike Out Hunger tour April 19-24 wasn't just a test of his own strength and competition. It was a personal journey driven by the hungry children and families he sees daily as he rides through the colonias near his home in McAllen—areas that lack clean running water and adequate sewer systems.

Task force report urges SBC to free IMB to work in North America

May 6, 2010

The Great Commission Resurgence Task Force will ask the Southern Baptist Convention to give its International Mission Board freedom to evangelize unreached people groups on what had been the exclusive turf of the North American Mission Board.

Changes underscore Baylor's commitment to ministry of healing

May 6, 2010

Commitment to Christian healing ministry has guided Baylor Health Care System since its founding, but creation of an office of mission and ministry has given renewed emphasis to that defining sense of purpose, hospital officials said.

Obama proclaims National Day of Prayer despite court ruling

May 6, 2010

President Obama has followed through on his promise to declare May 6 the National Day of Prayer despite a controversial April 15 ruling by a federal judge who said the government encouraging its citizens to pray violates the First Amendment.

Dove Award-winners emphasize desire to make a difference

May 6, 2010

Singer/songwriter Brandon Heath and the groups Jars of Clay and Casting Crowns took top honors at the Dove Awards, sponsored by the Gospel Music Association.

Adopted daughter a "perfect fit" for Hamilton pastor's family

May 6, 2010

When Maya Sitota arrived at Buckner International's baby home in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia in June 2008, she was starving. Now she's part of Keith and Sharon Felton's family.

Bhutanese refugees enjoy a day in the country

May 6, 2010

About 40 Bhutanese traveled from Dallas to Sabine Creek Ranch, south of Royse City, as a part of a fun day for the refugee families.