

Stark College president called as co-pastor in Georgetown

August 7, 2024

After nearly 30 years with their pastor, Crestview Baptist in Georgetown decided on a novel approach to moving forward with a successor.

Most pastors have little work experience outside ministry

August 7, 2024

A pastor's resumé might include multiple churches and ministry roles, but most don't have much job experience other than ministry listed.

Obituary: Dennis Brooks Linam

August 7, 2024

Dennis Brooks Linam, who served more than three decades in various administrative roles at Dallas Baptist University, died Aug. 3 in Arlington. He was 83.

Obituary: C.C. Risenhoover

August 7, 2024

Carmel Credille (C.C.) Risenhoover, Baptist pastor, accomplished author and professional communicator, died Aug. 2 in Temple. He was 88.

Around the State: HPU student serves in Italy

August 7, 2024

Over the summer, Howard Payne University student Hannah Hinshaw served in Bobbio Pellice, Italy, with Go Now Missions.

Spiritual encounters occur in Olympics hospitality spaces

August 7, 2024

At first, Adam Moore was a little skeptical about one of the Olympics outreach strategies in which his mission team was participating.

Short-term trips meet long-term strategies at Olympics

August 7, 2024

The Southern Baptist Convention's International Mission Board mobilized more than 300 short-term volunteers who are hitting the streets of Paris, sharing the gospel during the 2024 Summer Olympic Games.

Religious freedom advocate urges U.S. to 'value its values'

August 7, 2024

Working to advance international religious freedom and combat persecution not only reflects American values, but also advances the nation's interests, international human rights lawyer H. Knox Thames said.

ERLC executive committee issues update on entity

August 7, 2024

An Aug. 2 statement from the executive committee of the Ethics & Religious Liberty Commission affirms the group's support for Brent Leatherwood as president and leader of the Southern Baptist Convention entity, saying its work is more important now than ever.

Elder of church in China sentenced to prison

August 7, 2024

The leader of a Protestant church in China's Gyizhou Province received a five-year prison sentence July 24 for charges of fraud and inciting subversion.

Mission 'stay-cation' brings

missions home

August 7, 2024

First Baptist Church in Waxahachie has a long history of mission action, but it's been a while since the youth have been on a mission trip.

Pastor Care facilitates journey of healing and hope

August 7, 2024

Haynes Searcy carried a burden of pain and shame from childhood, a secret so dark it led him down troubled paths, even while serving in ministry.