

Evangelical group endorses immigration reform

October 9, 2009

The National Association of Evangelicals has endorsed comprehensive immigration reform, saying new policies should reflect “biblical grace to the stranger.”

City Reach 2009 offers hope to Houston

October 9, 2009

Houston churches are partnering with the Texas Baptist Convention for City Reach, a series of evangelistic events geared toward sharing the hope of Christ with the people of Houston through prayer, care and share efforts in preparation for the BGCT annual meeting there in November.

Intercultural Christians in

Texas have passion to reach people in homelands

October 9, 2009

Many intercultural Christians in Texas have a passion to reach their own people back in their native lands. The BGCT Intercultural Ministries is helping to make that possible through a new Intercultural Strategic Partners initiative.

Linked by breast cancer battle, Wayland employees forge bond

October 9, 2009

If you ask Wayland Baptist University employees Beverly Steed or Debbie Parker who has been one of their biggest help during their ongoing struggles with breast cancer and they would likely name each other.

Venezuelan spends three months in church-planting effort in Laredo

October 9, 2009

Since Venezuelan Baptist Patrick Weller began serving as a missionary eight years ago, he's taught at a mission school in Venezuela, ministered in Germany and planted churches in Argentina. But he never thought the next step in his journey would take him to South Texas.

Texans plant one-of-a-kind church in Pacific Northwest

October 9, 2009

Leaders of Resonate Church in Pullman, Wash., believe church planters should never underestimate the power of genuine relationships, prayer, creativity—and good coffee.

Camp introduces at-risk youth to a world of opportunity

October 9, 2009

Opportunity Camp, a weeklong camp Golden Triangle Baptist Association has sponsored more than four decades for at-risk youth, drew 21 boys and 16 girls.

One womanâs enthusiasm for shoebox project becomes contagious

October 9, 2009

Nettie Hyde of First Baptist Church in Rosebud, has inspired her town to donate 2,098 Operation Christmas Child boxes -more than its population of about 1,500.

Churches show love to poor children through shoebox gifts

October 9, 2009

Glinda Harbison of Immanuel Baptist Church in Temple has been passionate about Operation Christmas Child since she first heard about it, and that passion has only grown stronger over the years.

Juarez violence points to continuing need for prayer by Texas Baptists

October 9, 2009

Unabated violence in the border city of Juarez underscores the continuing need for prayer by Texas Baptists, said a Tyler physician who is seeking to mobilize a statewide response. He reports nine young people from three Juarez Baptist churches were killed in recent days.

Supreme Court gets technical in arguments on Mojave cross

October 9, 2009

Although the case of a lonely cross on federal land in California's Mojave Desert ultimately could have wide-ranging implications for the separation of church and state, justices on the Supreme Court spent much of the Oct. 7 oral arguments asking attorneys about highly technical and procedural issues.

Wayland pair make discovery in cancer research

October 9, 2009

Early findings indicate a pair of Wayland Baptist University summer researchers may have isolated an herbal compound that appears to kill cancer cells.