

Mission to Japan clarifies calling for Wayland volleyball player

September 18, 2009

Haley Hill, a junior on Wayland Baptist University's volleyball team, always wanted to be a teacher and coach, and her summer in Japan did not change that calling. But it did solidify in her mind that she is called to be “on mission” even in her chosen career by intentionally living out her faith.

Wayland leading staff to pray for needy

September 18, 2009

As part of its participation in Texas Hope 2010, Wayland Baptist University is encouraging all its staff members to work through a 30-day prayer guide that leads people to pray daily for the spiritually lost and physically hungry in Texas.

Longview church sets sights on 110 by 2010

September 18, 2009

At First Baptist Church in Longview, the goal is 110 by 2010—110 people who have come to Christ, been baptized and had their lives changed by the gospel—by Easter 2010.

Lyons loses bid to lead National Baptists again

September 18, 2009

An Alabama pastor was elected president of the National Baptist Convention, USA, overwhelmingly defeating Henry J. Lyons, the denomination's former leader who was sent to prison for fraud.

Baytown-based band stresses care for the poor

September 18, 2009

By sharing messages of hurting people at their concerts, the Texas-based band Leeland hopes to encourage Christians to engage actively with a world in need.

Lake Ivie Baptist Association seeks to distribute 10,000 gospel CDs

September 18, 2009

Lake Ivie Baptist Association purchased 10,000 multimedia gospel compact discs to help churches move forward with Texas Hope 2010 in a seven-county area.

HPU students make impact on community

September 18, 2009

More than 100 Howard Payne University students participated in Impact Weekend mission activities around Brownwood.

Grace House takes women from prisons to missions

September 18, 2009

Grace House in San Antonio offers women out of prison a chance to break free from their past and transition into society and a relationship with God.

For Galveston church, disaster prompts showers of blessings

September 18, 2009

After Galveston was pounded by Hurricane Ike, First Baptist Church changed its ministry focus to help it's hurting neighbors, helped by churches across the state.

Baptist has low expectations for

White House faith-based panel

September 18, 2009

Former Southern Baptist Convention President Frank Page said he doesn't expect much to result from the work of advisers to the White House's office dealing with faith-based and community groups.

Volunteers spread hope and gospel CDs throughout El Paso

September 18, 2009

Volunteers distributed more than 4,400 Texas Hope multimedia compact disks in El Paso.

Event focused on washing cars & cleansing hearts

September 18, 2009

Many groups use car washes as fund-raisers. But for members of Garland's Ethiopian Evangelical Baptist Church, their car wash wasn't about making money. They wanted to help people have clean cars and clean hearts.