

Around the State: DBU plans childhood ministry summit

July 17, 2008

- Dallas Baptist University will hold its second annual childhood ministry summit Aug. 15-16. Michael Lindsay, a noted sociologist, author and professor at Rice University, will be the keynote speaker. The two-day event, co-hosted by DBU and the Baptist General Convention of Texas, seeks to meet the training needs of directors and teachers of a wide variety of preschool and children's ministries. For more information, call (214) 828-5205.

Sixteen of the 150 children attending Vacation Bible School at First Church in Wake Village made professions of faith in Christ, and many more made new friends like Jaylene Boardley and Logan McLeod, pictured here. Linda Neathery, in submitting the picture, said, "To us, this represents the true meaning of what living for Christ is all about." The Wake Village church is situated in a transitional neighborhood and is seeking to minister to everyone in the community.

- Robert and Kerri Hamilton of Anna were among the 72 missionaries recently appointed by the International Mission Board. He has been pastor of Pin Oaks Christian Fellowship in Anna since 2002. He previously was associate student minister at First Church in Denton, youth pastor at Fairway Church in Wichita Falls, director of student ministries at Aldersgate Church in Lubbock, and pastor of First Church in Anna. They will serve as apprentice missionaries in South America. They have four children—Katherine, 7, Joseph, 6, Eliza-beth, 4 and Samuel, 2.
- Several members of Howard Payne University's faculty and staff have received service pins in recognition of their years of service. Art Allen, professor and assistant dean of Christian studies, and Rex Franks, assistant director of facilities and planning, were honored for 25 years with the university. Receiving awards for 15 years of service were Donnie Auven-shine, professor and dean, Christian studies; Eydie Hen-derson, administrative assistant, Christian studies; Charles Patillo, head men's basketball coach; Jesus Romero, professor, modern languages; and Joe Weatherby, Sandefer scholar-in-residence. Ten-year honorees were Ray Bertrand, Kim Bryant, Karen Dempsey, Kathy Hagood, Scott Owen, Diann Prickett and Julie Welker. Eight faculty and staff members were recognized for five years of service.
- Donna Harrell-Lubcker has been named dean of the School of Education at East Texas Baptist University. She has taught at the university since 1998.
