

Bike Out Hunger riders rolling through Texas

April 21, 2010

A group of Baptist bike enthusiasts – pastors and laypeople – are on a 6-day bicycle trip from Ballinger to San Antonio through Hamilton, Waco, Belton and Georgetown in an effort to raise money for hungry people as well as awareness that hunger is an issue in our home state.

You can follow their progress at the Bike Out Hunger website and see photos from the trip. It's all in support of the Texas Baptist Hunger Initiative. Below are photos from the first leg of the journey.
