

Everett committed to solidarity with the poor ‘for the long haul’

March 15, 2016

Jeremy Everett was a young Baptist seminary graduate grappling with exactly how to answer his calling—to serve the poor—when he found the answer in a kitchen in Waco, at a birthday party for a Dominican priest from Peru.

Read it at Baptist News Global.