

Fighting hunger can unite divided Americans, Everett insists

July 26, 2019

Jeremy Everett believes a divided nation can find common ground in a battle to eliminate chronic hunger.

Ministro de Laredo recibe los beneficios de la preparación del pastor anterior

July 26, 2019

John Delgado sabe por experiencia que aquellos pastores quienes miran al futuro también ayudan a sus iglesias a prepararse para cuando ellos ya no estén ahí.

Baptists call for chaplains to be allowed in execution chamber

July 26, 2019

At least 10 Baptists endorsed an interfaith statement urging the Texas Department of Criminal Justice to reconsider a policy that bars chaplains from the execution chamber.

Baylor regents celebrate record year for fund-raising

July 26, 2019

At its July meeting, Baylor University's board of regents celebrated the university's largest annual fundraising year in its 174-year history, receiving $243 million in gifts and pledges.

Fighting hunger one part of revitalizing Bachman Lake area

July 26, 2019

Pastor Ricardo Brambila of Primera Iglesia Bautista in Dallas encourages members of his century-old congregation to “think outside the box” to reach their community.

Recorded conversations help faithful differ with civility

July 26, 2019

Two people of faith—but not necessarily the same faith—who hold drastically different political opinions talked for 40 minutes in a Dallas Baptist University recording studio. In the process, they discovered more common ground than they expected.

HSU develops multiple partnerships in Keyna

July 26, 2019

What started as a meeting in the Hardin-Simmons University cafeteria has grown to an international partnership with multiple departments of the university.

Laredo minister benefits from previous pastor's preparation

July 26, 2019

John Delgado knows from experience that pastors who look forward help their churches prepare for the future when they no longer are on the scene.

Mansfield church provides affordable senior housing

July 26, 2019

After a dozen years of planning, Bethlehem Baptist Church in Mansfield opened an affordable housing complex for senior adults across the street from the church campus.

South Texas church budgets carefully to feed the elderly

July 26, 2019

When Don Smith goes grocery shopping, he looks for sales. He knows senior adults at a low-income housing unit in Freer depend on the help they receive from Casa Real Housing Ministry, and he wants to make every penny count.

African American Fellowship hears call to ‘move on’

July 26, 2019

The inability to “move on” beyond a painful past and “let go” of resentment plagues the nation in general and churches in particular, a Tennessee pastor told African American Texas Baptists.

Cooperation stressed at African American conference

July 26, 2019

Cooperation, remembrance and thanksgiving emerged as key themes during the first day of the African American Fellowship Conference.