

Student-led discipleship impacts Tarleton University

May 20, 2025

The Paradigm college ministry at First Baptist Church in Stephenville has seen tremendous growth this year. A story featuring pastoral staff perspectives on the ministry can be read here. How do Tarleton students describe the impact of the ministry?

Stephenville college ministry sees major growth

May 20, 2025

This past school year, the college ministry of First Baptist Church in Stephenville has hosted 400 to 700 Tarleton State University students each Thursday for its Paradigm worship service.

Dallas soccer outreach scores

goal of sharing the gospel

May 20, 2025

The Dallas Cup Hospitality Center in mid-April received more than 2,000 visits from youth soccer players and coaches from around the world. Volunteers from local churches provided meals and engaged in conversations gospel conversations.

Senate approves bill to move lottery administration

May 20, 2025

The Texas Senate unanimously approved a bill to abolish the Texas Lottery Commission and move administration of the state lottery to a different state agency.

HSU therapy program unlocks Parkinson voices

May 20, 2025

Hardin-Simmons University's speech-language pathology program will adopt a new therapy program in the fall to support individuals living with Parkinson's and related neurological disorders.

Senate bill introduced to move lottery administration

May 20, 2025

The Texas lawmaker who authored a bill to abolish the Texas Lottery filed alternative legislation May 13 that would dissolve the Texas Lottery Commission and move regulation of the lottery to another state agency.

God sustains in times of drought, Truett student proclaims

May 20, 2025

Jessalyn Brown, recipient of the 2025 Robert Jackson Robinson Outstanding Student Preacher award, preached the final chapel sermon of the semester at Baylor University's Truett Theological Seminary on May 6.

New volunteer makes an impact with Texans on Mission

May 20, 2025

Javier Jacobo is new to Texans on Mission disaster relief. Now, six people living in the Rio Grande Valley are new followers of Christ thanks to Jacobo's efforts after spring flooding.

Telehealth certificate at HSU strengthens rural health care

May 20, 2025

As Hardin-Simmons University put together the new nursing school, the university saw an opportunity to address lack of access to medical care across rural West Texas by adding a telehealth certificate.

Senate committee considers bill to abolish Texas Lottery

May 20, 2025

The Texas Senate Committee on State Affairs heard public testimony May 5 on a bill calling for the Texas Lottery to be abolished.

Lowrie named dean of HPU School of Christian Studies

May 20, 2025

Howard Payne University appointed David Lowrie, longtime Texas Baptist pastor and former president of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, as dean of the School of Christian Studies.

Governor signs education savings account bill into law

May 20, 2025

Gov. Greg Abbott signed into law a bill establishing an education savings account program that allows families to direct public funds to private—often religious—schools.