

Engage culture by embracing the cross, Russell Moore urges

September 8, 2017

Evangelicals engage American culture most effectively not by mimicking it but by offering an alternative centered on the cross of Christ, ethicist Russell Moore told a Baylor University crowd.

---

TBM disaster relief volunteers fan out along Texas Gulf Coast

September 8, 2017

Eleven days after Hurricane Harvey made landfall, Texas Baptist Men volunteers were providing disaster relief at two-dozen sites along the Texas Gulf Coast.

---

Momento Oportuno para Ministrar a Inmigrantes

September 8, 2017

En un momento cuando inmigrantes indocumentados en los Estados Unidos viven con un creciente temor e incertidumbre, existen ministerios que buscan ayudarlos a obtener un estatus legal y dar mejores oportunidades a familias para que permanezcan unidas.

---

Opportune time for ministry to immigrants

September 8, 2017

At a time when undocumented immigrants in the United States live with increasing fear and uncertainty, ministries that seek to help them gain legal status and keep families united have greater opportunities.

---

Buckner assessing, picking up in Hurricane Harvey aftermath

September 8, 2017

Buckner International continues to assess the short- and long-term impact on the families it serves in the aftermath of Hurricane Harvey after the storm pounded Houston and Southeast Texas, areas where Buckner has significant work.

---

Ministerio de inmigración de iglesia en Fort Worth renueva vidas

September 8, 2017

El Pastor Rafael Solís y los miembros de la Iglesia Bautista Azle Avenue en Fort Worth entienden que los pequeños y fieles actos de fe son los que causan grandes cambios en la vida de las personas.

---

Fort Worth church's immigration ministry changes lives

September 8, 2017

Pastor Rafael Solis and the members of Iglesia Bautista Azle Avenue in Fort Worth are changing the lives of immigrants who need up-to-date legal documentation.

---

Baptists mobilize to meet needs after Hurricane Harvey

September 8, 2017

Before most Gulf Coast residents returned to their homes after Hurricane Harvey, Texas Baptist Men disaster relief volunteers already had prepared 30,000-plus meals for first responders and sheltered evacuees.

---

A new and improved Baptist Standard

September 8, 2017

We've relaunched the Baptist Standard with a new look and improved website experience. We hope you like it.

<http://baptiststandard.com/wp-content/uploads/NewStandard.mp4>

---

HSU horseback riders no longer

carry Confederate flag

September 8, 2017

Riders of the Six White Horses—equestrian ambassadors for Hardin-Simmons University—no longer will carry a Confederate flag.

---

CommonCall: No more dumpster diving

September 8, 2017

A 3-year-old girl's question to her mom prompted another parent to help Mission Oak Cliff develop a satellite food pantry at a low-income elementary school.

---

Gulf Coast Texas Baptists hammered by Harvey

September 8, 2017

Many Texas Baptists along the Gulf Coast had only two choices after Hurricane Harvey—pray while they sheltered in place or pray as they evacuated their homes.