

Rincones: Guidelines leave churches open to intrusion

January 28, 2025

An immigration enforcement guideline change means Hispanic churches are “susceptible to disruption and intrusion,” the executive director of Convención Bautista Hispana de Texas stated.

BSM sees expanded opportunity to help leaders grow

January 28, 2025

JT Norcross considers helping students develop as Christian leaders an important part of his role as director of Baptist Student Ministry at Navarro College in Corsicana, but he knows the clock is ticking.

CLC weighs in on precedent-setting religious freedom case

January 28, 2025

Texas Baptists’ CLC filed a legal brief urging the Texas Supreme Court not to overly narrow Religious Service Protections amendment's scope.

Texans on Mission volunteers served two-thirds of 2024

January 28, 2025

Texans on Mission volunteers spent about two-thirds of last year—235 days—in the field, ministering to survivors of a variety of disasters.

Act of kindness leads to long-term partnership

January 28, 2025

When a 12-step rehabilitation center in West Texas experienced extended power outages in 2021, Primera Iglesia Bautista in Plainview stepped in to help, unexpectedly forging a long-term partnership.

ETBU senior pens original worship song

January 28, 2025

Hannah Hopkins, a senior at East Texas Baptist University, transferred to the school in spring 2023 with a passion to lead worship.

Sudan connection drives Amarillo church to aid refugees

January 28, 2025

South Sudanese attending All Nations Worship Church, a ministry of Paramount Baptist Church in Amarillo, know the pain of those displaced by the war in Sudan, which has created the greatest humanitarian crisis globally.

Parolee's baptism tells of redemption outside prison walls

January 28, 2025

Anansi Flaherty, a backup fullback on Katy High School's 2000 State Championship team, gave his life to Christ in prison. On Dec. 19, 2024, he was baptized—“raised to walk in new life”—outside those walls.

New church plant cultivates vision for missional community

January 28, 2025

Since launching a new Texas Baptist church plant in September and holding worship services at a state-of-the-art office and meeting space area, Jamael Graves, lead pastor of Cultivate Church in The Colony, realizes the mission field surrounding his congregation.

Report: Texas use of death penalty low but racial bias high

January 28, 2025

For the 10th consecutive year, death sentences in Texas remained in single digits, a year-end report noted. However, the report points to continued racial bias and wrongful convictions in the state’s administration of capital punishment.

Volunteers serve at Christmas in the Rio Grande Valley

January 28, 2025

Texans on Mission assembled a “dream team” of volunteers to bring Christmas—and its Christ-focused message—to the Rio Grande Valley Dec. 13-19.

A proposal, a loss and an answered prayer at camp

January 28, 2025

Abel Kent had one thing on his mind: Asking his girlfriend Katelin “Kat” Weikel to marry him. The pair were both sponsors of youth attending Royal Ambassadors Campout and Missions Mania at Latham Springs Camp and Retreat Center in Aquilla.