

Conclave NextGen equips leaders for ministry

October 10, 2024

More than 700 children, youth, college ministers and pastors from across Texas and beyond gathered in San Antonio for Conclave NextGen.

West Texas A&M BSM serves from a temporary home

October 10, 2024

Macie Groomer, a senior at West Texas A&M University, came to campus her freshman year searching for a community of like-minded believers.

Mission Waco answers homelessness with community

October 10, 2024

Mission Waco has taken the first steps to create a transformational community for previously unhoused people, and the organization is inviting area churches to be part of the transformation.

Truett event focuses on police and faith community

October 10, 2024

Waco Police Chief Sheryl Victorian applauded faith leaders who hosted Faith & Blue community engagement events that help to build relationships of trust with police officers and to “humanize the badge.”

Texas Baptists rolls out new sexual abuse help page

October 10, 2024

When the sexual abuse task force reported to the BGCT Executive Board, the task force chair noted a need for a more user-friendly website.

CLC urges action to regulate

Texas prison temperatures

October 10, 2024

Inmates in Texas prisons and the correctional officers who work there suffer in unbearable heat each summer due to unregulated temperatures.

Texans on Mission rebuild home for tornado victim

October 10, 2024

Brooke Brandon never will forget the tornado that hit Matador last year. And she always will remember the Texans on Mission volunteers who rebuilt her home.

Hendrick Health marks 100 years of service to community

October 10, 2024

Hendrick Health in Abilene has provided vital healthcare services in West Texas for 100 years this September.

Proximity and cooperation key to justice and compassion

October 10, 2024

Speakers at a Fellowship Southwest conference challenged participants to think about the intersection between faith and justice.

Howard Payne University receives DOE clarification

October 10, 2024

Howard Payne University won a successful appeal from the Department of Education's review committee, clarifying ownership and scoring a victory for the Baptist General Convention of Texas and related or affiliated educational institutions.

Board takes steps to create church insurance program

October 10, 2024

The Baptist General Convention of Texas Executive Board voted to take initial steps to create a Texas Baptist insurance program to enable churches to secure affordable property and casualty, liability and similar insurance coverage.

Tillie Burgin's vision: 'Take the church to the people'

October 10, 2024

For 38 years, Mission Arlington has existed to "take church to the people," founder and director Tillie Burgin explained.