

Ken Camp, longtime Baptist journalist, to retire

December 1, 2025

Baptist Standard Managing Editor Ken Camp will retire Dec. 31, 2025, bringing to a close a decades-long era of reporting on Texas Baptists.

Cowboy church disciples men

December 1, 2025

In 2011, Montague County Cowboy Church Pastor Joe Caballero took a camping trip with his family, along with two other families, to Carson National Forest in New Mexico.

Baylor football team Bible study yields baptisms

December 1, 2025

Ten athletes on the Baylor Bears football team publicly expressed their faith commitments to Christ by being baptized in the university athletic facility's hydrotherapy pool in early November.

Judge blocks Ten Commandment classroom displays

December 1, 2025

A federal judge blocked 14 Texas school districts from displaying a state-prescribed version of the Ten Commandments in public school classrooms, citing constitutional concerns.

Muslim civil rights group sues Texas officials

December 1, 2025

The Council on American-Islamic Relations has sued Texas Gov. Greg Abbott and Attorney General Ken Paxton for labeling the Muslim civil rights group as a foreign terrorist organization.

Texas/Ukraine church partnership launched

December 1, 2025

Texas and Ukrainian Baptist leaders meeting in Abilene, Nov. 18, signed a partnership agreement between their churches.

Affordable, sustainable insurance for churches introduced

December 1, 2025

Texas Baptists leaders highlighted the launch of a new statewide insurance solution during a luncheon presentation of the Texas Baptists Indemnity Program—known as TBIP—and its partnership with KingsCover Insurance.

Texas Baptist affinity groups

celebrate ministry and leadership

December 1, 2025

Reports from multiple Texas Baptist groups share celebrations in ministry and leadership.

Texas Baptists challenged to live out GC2

December 1, 2025

Speakers challenged attendees of the 2025 BGCT annual meeting to embody the Great Commandment and Great Commission as a way of life.

BGCT messengers praised for civil debate

December 1, 2025

Messengers to the 2025 BGCT annual meeting debated a motion to examine the relationship between the BGCT and Baylor University.

2026 BGCT budget draws defunding efforts

December 1, 2025

BGCT messengers adopted recommendations and elected new officers, among other business Nov. 17 during the 2025 BGCT annual meeting.

Pastors learn firsthand about El Paso-area ministries

December 1, 2025

Six Texas Baptist pastors participated in a trip to El Paso to learn about the Immigration Service and Aid Center, River Ministry and ministries supported by the Texas Baptist Hunger Offering.