

Seminary gives association six months to vacate property (Updated)

January 14, 2011

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary notified Tarrant Baptist Association before Christmas it had six months to vacate its offices on the edge of the seminary campus. The seminary asserted the association was in violation of its affiliation agreement—in part because of perceived toleration of homosexuality by a member church or churches.

Champions for Life events reap harvest in Golden Triangle

January 14, 2011

More than 1,000 people made first-time decisions to follow Christ during Golden Triangle Baptist Association's second Champions For Life week.

Gridiron event offers a “super” evangelism opportunity

January 14, 2011

On Feb. 6, two teams will fight for professional football’s highest honor when they meet in Arlington for the 45th annual Super Bowl. A diverse group of Christians called Reach 45 is trying to point people to an even higher calling.

Winter break provides opportunities to share gospel

January 14, 2011

Student teams with Go Now Missions spread the gospel by giving new boots to orphans in Moldova, engaging African immigrants in New York City, encountering college students in East and South Asia, helping rebuild a Haitian village and building a home in Jamaica.

BGCT ends year short of budget, behind 2009

January 14, 2011

The Baptist General Convention of Texas ended 2010 nearly 13 percent below budget requirements and 7.65 percent behind the previous year's receipts, the BGCT treasurer's office reported.

Texas legislators faced with daunting budget deficit

January 14, 2011

Texas lawmakers, faced with a sluggish economy and a budget deficit as high as $25 billion, may feel forced to make up for it through a variety of options, including the expansion of gambling and the reduction of aid for children and the poor.

On the Move

January 14, 2011

Andy Anderson has resigned as pastor of First Church in Eldorado.

Around the State

January 14, 2011

Dillon International will hold a free adoption information meeting at the Buckner Children's Home campus in Dallas Jan. 24 at 6 p.m.

TCU quarterback leaves spiritual legacy on campus

January 14, 2011

In a post-game interview following Texas Christian University's 21-19 victory over Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl, TCU quarterback Andy Dalton turned the conversation toward God's blessings rather than personal achievement.

Children from hospital

Baylor's guests at Texas Bowl

January 14, 2011

Three hundred patients and their families from Texas Children's Hospital attended the Texas Bowl as special guests of Baylor University. The invitation was spurred by Houston alumni serving on a Baylor Texas Bowl Host Committee, who reached out in a cooperative effort to Baylor College of Medicine and Texas Children's Hospital.

UPDATED: Group plans 5,000 homes, 5,000 Haitians employed

January 14, 2011

Help Build Hope Haiti organizers envision mobilizing Christians— and other people of good will— in the United States to provide permanent housing for Haitian families. (SEE EDITOR'S NOTE AT END OF ARTICLE)

Witnesses of lynching tell tales of fear, faith and forgiveness

January 14, 2011

Angela Sims trained with the Baylor University Institute for Oral History before interviewing people across the country, collecting horrifying eyewitness accounts of lynchings.