

“Pink out” campaign at San Marcos Academy benefits cancer patients

December 3, 2010

The San Marcos Academy Bears football team traded in their traditional forest green and purple uniforms for pink jerseys during one game this season to heighten community awareness about breast cancer services and raise money for Central Texas Medical Center.

Baptist worker delivers food to North Korea, provides supplies for orphans

December 3, 2010

Less than three weeks before North Korea shelled the South Korean YeonPyeong Island and tensions on the Korean Peninsula escalated, a Dallas-based Baptist missions worker delivered 60 tons of corn to North Koreans suffering from a longstanding food shortage in their country.

AIDS ministry in Zambia offers Circle of Hope

December 3, 2010

International Mission Board missionaries Troy and Tracey Lewis of Dallas have led AIDS-related ministries in Zambia for the past decade.

Texas Baptists send tons of aid to Mexico border refugees

December 3, 2010

Texas Baptists have sent more than four tons of aid to more than 400 people forced from their homes in the Mexico border city of Ciudad Mier.

UMHB personnel package food

for children in Haiti

December 3, 2010

Eighty University of Mary Hardin-Baylor faculty and staff packaged 18,000 meals for hungry children in Haiti in partnership with Kids Against Hunger, an organization that packages and delivers food to children around the world.

Texas ranks No. 2 in terms of hunger, USDA reports

December 3, 2010

Hunger in Texas has increased slightly, making the Lone Star State the second hungriest in the nation and underscoring the need for Texas Baptists to continue their commitment to live out Christ's call to feed the hungry.

Texas Baptists seek to educate children in Haiti

December 3, 2010

Texas Baptists have partnered with Siloe Baptist School in Grande-Guave,

Haiti, spearheading an appeal for individuals and groups to send impoverished children to a Christian school for $15 a month.

Hispanic church leadership demands cross-cultural competency

December 3, 2010

Texas Baptists who want to understand leadership from a Hispanic perspective should begin by recognizing no single Hispanic perspective exists, a South Texas pastor told participants at the G5 Conference in McAllen.

Mother of two gives thanks for Family Care program

December 3, 2010

When Natalie Duncan-Smith (seated) received a car through the Family Care program at Texas Baptist Children's Home, it gave her a new lease on life.

DBU student athletes serve at Feast of Sharing

December 3, 2010

For the second year in a row, the Dallas Baptist University athletic department participated in the Feast of Sharing hosted by H-E-B and Central Market at Fair Park in Dallas, providing hot holiday meals to people in need.

DBU's care for one Chilean student grows into broad-based mission trip

December 3, 2010

This fall, a 14-member team of DBU students and staff traveled to Concepción, Chile, to help with reconstruction in the city, not far from the hometown of Miguel Faúndez, a student from Chile who was at DBU when a devastating earthquake caused widespread damage in February.

God's provision through church gives hungry a reason to give thanks

December 3, 2010

The hunger ministry of Clear Lake Baptist Church has one unchanging rule: Rely on God to provide. And God has always held up his end of the bargain.