

Texas Baptists send tons of aid to Mexico border refugees

November 30, 2010

Texas Baptists have sent more than four tons of aid to more than 400 people forced from their homes in the Mexico border city of Ciudad Mier.

UMHB personnel package food for children in Haiti

November 30, 2010

Eighty University of Mary Hardin-Baylor faculty and staff packaged 18,000 meals for hungry children in Haiti in partnership with Kids Against Hunger, an organization that packages and delivers food to children around the world.

Texas ranks No. 2 in terms of hunger, USDA reports

November 30, 2010

Hunger in Texas has increased slightly, making the Lone Star State the second hungriest in the nation and underscoring the need for Texas Baptists to continue their commitment to live out Christ's call to feed the hungry.

Texas Baptists seek to educate children in Haiti

November 30, 2010

Texas Baptists have partnered with Siloe Baptist School in Grande-Guave, Haiti, spearheading an appeal for individuals and groups to send impoverished children to a Christian school for $15 a month.

Hispanic church leadership demands cross-cultural competency

November 30, 2010

Texas Baptists who want to understand leadership from a Hispanic perspective should begin by recognizing no single Hispanic perspective exists, a South Texas pastor told participants at the G5 Conference in McAllen.

Mother of two gives thanks for Family Care program

November 30, 2010

When Natalie Duncan-Smith (seated) received a car through the Family Care program at Texas Baptist Children's Home, it gave her a new lease on life.

DBU student athletes serve at Feast of Sharing

November 30, 2010

For the second year in a row, the Dallas Baptist University athletic department participated in the Feast of Sharing hosted by H-E-B and Central Market at Fair Park in Dallas, providing hot holiday meals to people in need.

DBU's care for one Chilean student grows into broad-based mission trip

November 30, 2010

This fall, a 14-member team of DBU students and staff traveled to Concepción, Chile, to help with reconstruction in the city, not far from the hometown of Miguel Faúndez, a student from Chile who was at DBU when a devastating earthquake caused widespread damage in February.

God's provision through church gives hungry a reason to give thanks

November 30, 2010

The hunger ministry of Clear Lake Baptist Church has one unchanging rule: Rely on God to provide. And God has always held up his end of the bargain.

Baylor seeks public input for 10-year strategic plan

November 30, 2010

Baylor University has begun the public input portion of its strategic planning process by inviting faculty, staff, students, alumni and friends of Baylor to help shape the direction of the university's next 10-year plan.

Apostolic movements, not programs, called key to church's future

November 30, 2010

Western Christianity's future depends on its capacity to recover apostolic movements in the present day, author and church planter Alan Hirsch told San Antonio church leaders.

On the Move

November 30, 2010

Jay Beerley has resigned as minister of students at First Church in Wake Village.