

Church, hospital, nonprofits join forces to provide care for community in Mexico

November 5, 2010

The people of El Arenal, in the state of Jalisco, have to drive three hours to Guadalajara for medical care. When that information came to Pastor Juvel Garcia and his wife, Silvia, of Primera Iglesia Bautista in Gainesville, they decided something needed to be done.

---

Church implodes buildings to make way for project

November 5, 2010

First Baptist Church in Dallas officially has embarked—with four simultaneous Oct. 30 building implosions—on what it is calling the biggest church renovation-and-expansion project in modern history.

---

Standard develops FaithVillage online community for Christian young adults

November 5, 2010

Baptist Standard Publishing is building a $5 million community—FaithVillage, an interactive Internet presence designed to provide high-quality Christian resources and a social network to serve 20 million evangelicals ages 18 to 44.

---

ETBU biology students trust God, gain experience

November 5, 2010

East Texas Baptist University biology major Lauren Charron had the sought-after opportunity to conduct undergraduate research at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School. But the summer internship almost didn't materialize.

---

DBU families spend weekend serving community

November 5, 2010

Parents of Dallas Baptist University students had the opportunity to see for themselves what their children have learned about servant leadership—and join in service alongside them—during Family Weekend.

---

Standing strong: Buckner marks 10 years in Kenya

November 5, 2010

Dickson Masindano will take all the help he can get for the Buckner International ministries he oversees in Kenya. But he wants everyone to know his goal is less, not more.

---

Buckner offers long-term missions opportunities

November 5, 2010

For the past 10 years, Buckner International has facilitated short-term mission trip opportunities—usually one week to 10 days long—for individuals and churches. Now, Buckner offers longer opportunities ranging from one month to one year.

---

Different heritage, similar missions link two schools

November 5, 2010

Representatives of the Guadalupe School of Religion, an independent African-American college founded in 1884, and Baptist University of the Américas, a Texas Baptist-affiliated school, signed an agreement allowing students of the Guadalupe School access to the BUA library and research resources.

---

Dignity based on creation, not capability

November 5, 2010

Discussions about dignity and dying benefit from a clear understanding of dignity's source and meaning, a founding member of the President's Council on Bioethics told a Baylor University gathering.

---

On the Move

November 5, 2010

Dee Blasingame to Calvary Church in Aransas Pass as pastor.

---

Around the State

November 5, 2010

Paul Stripling will present guidance on "How to Minister to Those Experiencing Grief" at noon Nov. 11 as part of the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor ministers' forum series.

---

Students exposed to culture, adventure in Ecuador

November 5, 2010

A 10-member team from Wayland Baptist University spent two weeks in Ecuador on a mission and education trip.