

On the Move

November 4, 2010

Dee Blasingame to Calvary Church in Aransas Pass as pastor.

---

Around the State

November 4, 2010

Paul Stripling will present guidance on “How to Minister to Those Experiencing Grief” at noon Nov. 11 as part of the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor ministers’ forum series.

---

Students exposed to culture, adventure in Ecuador

November 4, 2010

A 10-member team from Wayland Baptist University spent two weeks in Ecuador on a mission and education trip.

---

Trustees & directors nominated for BGCT consideration

November 4, 2010

Nominations to be considered by messengers to the BGCT annual meeting, Nov. 8-9 in McAllen, are presented by the Committee on Committees, Committee to Nominate Executive Board Directors and the Committee for Nominations for Boards of Affiliated Ministries.

---

Mikeschair challenges Christians to meet needs in Jesus' name

November 4, 2010

In their concerts, members of the Christian band Mikeschair encourage audiences to change the world by sharing Jesus' love with people in need—including orphans whose lives are touched by Buckner International's Shoes for Orphan Souls program.

---

North Texas church discovers its mission through Indian student

November 4, 2010

A chance encounter on a seminary campus led Bethel Baptist Church in Celina to focus its mission efforts on India.

---

DBU students test soil, prepare ground for the gospel in Bangladesh

November 4, 2010

Dallas Baptist University students tested the soil of rural rice fields outside of Dhaka, Bangladesh, and in the process helped a ministry to Muslims figuratively prepare the ground for planting the gospel.

---

G5 conference focuses on sharing the hope of Christ

November 4, 2010

The fifth generation of Texas Baptist church leaders is called to continue sharing the hope of Christ throughout the state, and they'll do it in an environment unlike any in Texas history, Baptist General Convention of Texas leaders observed.

---

At 60, CLC continues challenging, shaping Texas

November 4, 2010

Born with "a dream and an ache in the heart" 60 years ago, the Texas Baptist Christian Life Commission has challenged and helped shape the state ever since.

---

CERI helps AIDS orphans cope

with loss

November 4, 2010

Children's Emergency Relief International Executive Director Dearing Garner recently took part in a three-day meeting in Pietermaritzburg, South Africa, where the focus was all about building resiliency and healing the emotional wounds of children orphaned by the HIV/AIDS epidemic.

---

Breckenridge Village, CERI team up to help orphans

November 4, 2010

Two Baptist Child & Family Services programs have joined forces again in a special tradition. In anticipation of Children's Emergency Relief International's annual winter mission to Eastern Europe, residents from Breckenridge Village of Tyler knitted more than 375 warm wool hats to protect orphaned and impoverished children from frostbite.

---

Labor of love by Christian

volunteers changes lives in colonias

November 4, 2010

---

The Rosales and Beltran families are just two of hundreds living in primitive conditions in colonias along the Texas/Mexico border who have seen their lives transformed through the efforts of Christian volunteers with Buckner International who build homes and spread hope.