

Ash cloud postpones musical mission trip to Ukraine six months

April 19, 2010

A volcanic ash cloud that caused a $1 billion disruption to international airline travel forced a Texas Baptist choir to postpone by six months its concert tour in Ukraine.

Church's ministry weaves tapestry of love for internationals

April 19, 2010

For 40 years, the Neighbors International ministry of Columbus Avenue Baptist Church in Waco has been introducing people around the world to one another, Texas culture and— most importantly—Jesus Christ.

Texas Baptists spread hope, but work remains

April 19, 2010

Through the Texas Hope 2010 effort, Texas Baptists distributed more than 862,000 evangelistic CDs and countless copies of Scripture.

Congreso draws record number of participants, commitments

April 19, 2010

More than 2,000 participants at Congreso, an annual event for Hispanic Baptist students and young adults, made decisions to follow Christ or deepen their relationship with God.

Family finds their Angels waiting on the other side of the world

April 19, 2010

A group of Russian orphans, ages 6 to 12, will arrive in Dallas July 30 for a two-week visit with American host families as part of this year's Angels from Abroad program, administered by Dillon International through its affiliation with Buckner International.

Texas Tidbits

April 19, 2010

Baylor University's Louise Herrington School of Nursing marked its 100th anniversary at a gala luncheon in Dallas. The Nurses' Training School of the Texas Baptist Memorial Sanitarium opened in 1909.

On the Move

April 19, 2010

Vernon Andrews to First Church in Pettus as outreach minister.

Around the State

April 19, 2010

The Singing Men of North Central Texas will present a concert at Dallas Baptist University April 15 at 7 p.m. The concert is free and open to the public.

More than 1,000 Texas college students on mission over spring break

April 19, 2010

Unlike their peers who spent spring break partying on a beach or catching up on sleep, more than 1,000 college students chose to serve selflessly in more than 25 locations throughout the state, nation and world, proclaiming the hope of Christ and meeting needs.

Audience

involvement

emphasized during annual UMHB Easter pageant

April 19, 2010

From dozens of preschool children sitting on the grass to senior citizens in lawn chairs, the UMHB Easter pageant drew record crowds to the Belton campus.

Documentary makers warn viewers to "Beware of Christians"

April 19, 2010

A new film—Beware of Christians—centers on self-discovery—four college guys who grew up in Texas seeking answers to their own questions about what being a Christian means.

Former BCFS foster child wants to "give back"

April 19, 2010

Dale Grayson recently returned to Baptist Child and Family Services campus to speak with some of the children and youth who are facing the same challenges and uncertainty with which he once struggled.