

Holidays hurt, but grieving Christians can find solace in God

November 25, 2009

Loss of a loved one through death creates trauma, but emotions surrounding that loss can be particularly close to the surface during the holidays.

Chaplains lead service for parents whose children died in infancy

November 25, 2009

Each fall, chaplains in Baylor's pastoral care and counseling department lead a memorial service for the benefit of parents whose children died in infancy.

Wayland student perseveres after accident to pursue degree

November 25, 2009

After a devastating car crash followed by years of relearning all the basic functions of self-sufficiency, Beau Bishop is a senior at Wayland Baptist University and on track for a degree.

Baptist agency offers training for Moldova's foster parents

November 25, 2009

Foster parents in Moldova recently received parenting training, thanks to Children's Emergency Relief International, the overseas division of Baptist Child & Family Services.

Leaders seek to end Texas hunger by 2015

November 25, 2009

Federal, state and local leaders in the fight against hunger gathered for a hunger summit at Baylor University to begin a discussion they hope will spark actions to end food insecurity in Texas by 2015.

Faculty Senate has a deep concern about Baylor-alumni group conflict

November 25, 2009

Baylor University's Faculty Senate has weighed in on the turbulent relationship between the Baylor Alumni Association and the university's administration and board of regents.

WWI changed Truett's views on war, peace and government

November 25, 2009

George W. Truett's experience preaching to troops in Europe during World War I not only shaped his views about militarism, but also contributed to his growing conviction that only Christ's church—not any government—offered hope for lasting peace, church historian Kelly Pigott said.

Goal set at Baylor summit: End food insecurity in Texas by 2015

November 25, 2009

Federal, state and local leaders in the fight against hunger gathered for a hunger summit at Baylor University to begin a discussion they hope will spark actions to end food insecurity in Texas by 2015.

Annual meeting draws few for business, many for outreach

November 25, 2009

The BGCT annual meeting in Houston attracted the fewest messengers in at least 60 years, but a series of evangelistic events prior to the meeting marked the largest number of professions of faith in Christ of any similar event in recent history.

Stream event caters to Baptists under age 35

November 25, 2009

The first group of messengers and visitors to arrive in Houston for the Baptist General Convention of Texas annual meeting of Texas Baptists was a little different than normal. They all were under age 35, participants in Stream—a special event added to the meeting schedule to appeal to young Baptists.

Islamic scholars debate whether Muslims should serve in non-Muslim armies

November 25, 2009

As investigators seek to uncover what motivated Maj. Nidal M. Hasan to kill 13 fellow soldiers at Fort Hood, one lead they are exploring is his apparent worry that serving in the U.S. Army compromised his Muslim faith.

Three ministries honored with Texas Baptist Missions Foundation awards

November 25, 2009

The Texas Baptist Missions Foundation celebrated 25 years of service at its annual mission awards luncheon during the Baptist General Convention of Texas annual meeting, honoring a medical clinic, a ministry to urban youth and a church that discovered new avenues of ministry after being devastated by Hurricane Ike.