

Texas Tidbits: Carroll Institute honors supporters

June 5, 2008

The B.H. Carroll Theological Institute honored philanthropist Babs Baugh of San Antonio and Joan Trew of Fort Worth at its June 3 convocation at First Baptist Church in Lewisville.

On the Move

June 5, 2008

- Mark Bairrington to Second Church in Andrews as minister of youth and worship.

WorldconneX revises budget to “jumpstart” church- sending fund

June 5, 2008

The WorldconneX board of directors voted to adjust its budget to operate solely on 80 percent of the funds received from the worldwide initiatives portion of church-directed Texas Baptist cooperative giving.

Around the State

June 5, 2008

- JoyLynn Reed has been named associate provost at the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor.
-

Lewisville pastor to be nominated for BGCT president

June 5, 2008

Stephen Hatfield, a pastor and co-leader of a committee charged with charting the Baptist General Convention of Texas' future, will be a candidate for BGCT president when the convention meets this fall.

Faithful few who launch Austin church see vision become reality

June 5, 2008

Less than five years ago, fewer than 10 people came together to form Iglesia Bautista de la Gracia. Now prayer is changing the hearts of people in the heart of north central Austin.

ETBU students cross barriers to show God's love

June 5, 2008

ETBU student on missionStudents from East Texas Baptist University crossed cultural and language barriers—not to mention the Texas/Mexico border daily—while serving in recent missions projects along the Rio Grande.

Time of Remembrance at ETBU On Memorial Day

June 5, 2008

“A Time of Remembrance,” was held by East Texas Baptist University on Monday at noon in the Quadrangle on campus. Quinton Rogers of Marshall, a World War II veteran, was the guest speaker.

Wheelchair-bound pastor takes limitations in stride

June 5, 2008

When a hunting accident left Pastor Gary Fannon of First Baptist Church in Diboll unable to move his legs, he re-examined his calling, and found he had a lot more to preach about.

Texas Tidbits: Baylor regents approve budget

June 5, 2008

Baylor University's regents at their spring meeting approved a $366 million operating budget for 2008-2009.

On the Move

June 5, 2008

Pat Cole to First Church in Granger as pastor.

Standard offers expanded resources on website

June 5, 2008

The newly relaunched Baptist Standard website provides a platform for the Baptist Standard to fulfill its charter and mission in the 21st century, according to Editor Marv Knox.