

Prayer effort spotlights Chinese house church persecution

October 30, 2024

Texas Baptists' Intercultural Ministries is highlighting house churches in China for the upcoming International Day of Prayer for the Persecuted Church, scheduled on Sunday, Nov. 3.

Park Cities Baptist withdraws from SBC

October 30, 2024

Park Cities Baptist Church in Dallas—a prominent congregation situated in the affluent Highland Park/University Park area—voted to withdraw its affiliation with the Southern Baptist Convention.

40-year-old Arabic Church of Dallas reaches the world

October 30, 2024

Arabic Church of Dallas, whose pastors have trained leaders and cared for refugees around the world, celebrated 40 years on Oct. 27.

Wayland student mission trips made eternal difference

October 30, 2024

For native-born Alaskan youngsters Parker and Marty, Wayland Baptist University's nine-year investment in the Kenai Peninsula Sports Camp operated by Alaska Missions made a difference—an eternal difference.

Call for reparations as a healing act of repentance

October 30, 2024

A white professor at a historically Black university considers reparations for slavery and segregation an essential act of biblical repentance that can lead to racial healing in the United States.

Naomi House offers asylum seekers chance to flourish

October 30, 2024

When 2019 saw a surge of displaced people at the United States' southern border one Waco church didn't see a problem with the people.

Inmate turned playwright in his 'comeback season'

October 30, 2024

Jamison Charles always considered himself a follower, and he "followed the crowd straight to prison," But during his incarceration, he became a follower of Jesus Christ, and "tragedy turned to triumph," he said.

Kingdom focus at upcoming BGCT annual meeting

October 30, 2024

Messengers and guests from churches across the state will gather Nov. 10-12 in Waco for the 139th BGCT annual meeting.

‘Historical wormholes’ shed light on larger story

October 30, 2024

Preaching from a passage recounting the passing of the prophetic mantle from Elijah to Elisha, the field coordinator for CBF Texas encouraged women in ministry to draw strength from the bigger picture.

Amanda Tyler denounces Christian nationalism as idolatry

October 30, 2024

Christian nationalism threatens democracy and substitutes coercive idolatry for authentic faith, Amanda Tyler, executive director of the Baptist Joint Committee for Religious Liberty, told a gathering at a North Texas church.

Churches called to ‘break the chains’ of family violence

October 30, 2024

Given the prevalence of family violence and human trafficking in Texas, every faith community will encounter survivors, participants in a Texas Department of Family and Protective Services webinar learned.

Proclama: Fortaleciendo el Futuro de la Predicación Pastoral Hispana

October 30, 2024

La Universidad Bautista de las Américas fue sede de Proclama, una iniciativa de BUA financiada por de Lilly Endowment Inc. Proclama se dedica a capacitar a pastores en la entrega de sermones centrados en la palabra de Dios.