

Pastor prophetically ministers to community, congregation

February 13, 2023

In more than three and a half decades at Macedonia Baptist Church, Pastor Jerry Dailey has aimed to “minister to the hopes and hurts of the community and the congregation.”

BH Carroll Institute becomes seminary within ETBU

February 13, 2023

B.H. Carroll Theological Institute is becoming B.H. Carroll Theological Seminary and will be embedded in East Texas Baptist University.

BGCT receives $28 million from Dukes estate

February 13, 2023

The Baptist General Convention of Texas received more than $28 million from the estate of William (Bill) P. and Janie B. Dukes.

TBM volunteers serve after tornadoes hit Southeast Texas

February 13, 2023

Texas Baptist Men volunteers responded quickly after a series of tornadoes swept across Southeast Texas from the Houston area to Orange.

Connections key to international students feeling at home

February 13, 2023

This year, 106 international students from 35 countries selected the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor. For many, life as an international student includes facing challenges like language barriers and social, cultural and religious differences.

Brotherly love among college friends prompts philanthropy

February 13, 2023

Nearly 50 years of picking, poking, pranking and praying for each another have characterized the friendship of three college friends from Wayland Baptist University.

No lives lost when façade collapsed at Stephenville church

February 13, 2023

First Baptist Church in Stephenville gathered for worship on Jan. 22, four days after the façade on the exterior of one of its buildings collapsed, injuring two construction workers.

Pastors enter public service to ‘be a light’ in communities

February 13, 2023

Michael Evans, mayor of Mansfield and senior pastor of Bethlehem Baptist Church there, developed a heart for public service when he was 8 years old.

Conference offers training and equipping in evangelism

February 13, 2023

Saying the church’s “evangelism has fallen short of our calling,” Pastor Tony Evans urged attendees at Texas Baptists’ Statewide Evangelism Conference to go and make disciples.

Mary’s House provides home for stateside missionaries

February 13, 2023

When Mary’s House recently opened its doors to provide a residence for a missionary family, it marked a dream come true for Texas WMU and the World Missions Center at Southwestern Seminary.

Texas plane crash kills four from Tennessee church

February 13, 2023

A plane crash in Lavaca County killed four members of Harvest Church in Germantown, Tenn., and left one person hospitalized.

BGCT search committee accepting nominations

February 13, 2023

The search committee is accepting nominations for the next executive director of the Baptist General Convention of Texas through Jan. 31.