

HSU trustees grant president three-year extension

November 12, 2022

The Hardin-Simmons University board of trustees has offered to extend by three years the contract of President Eric Bruntmyer, who in recent weeks received votes of no-confidence from the school's faculty.

Llano pastor teaches Koinonia Karate

November 12, 2022

Pastor Matt Richard uses his giftedness in the martial arts to connect with his community and teach character-building lessons, particularly—but not exclusively—to children.

College ministry moves into a post-pandemic world

November 12, 2022

When COVID-19 caused global shutdowns in spring 2020, Baptist Student

Ministries on university campuses had to adapt quickly to discipling students remotely. And they still are discovering what campus ministry looks like as society emerges from a global pandemic.

Freedom Church focuses on breaking the huddle

November 12, 2022

On fifth Sundays, expect to find the pews and hallways of Freedom Church in Bedford empty. Instead, look in nearby grocery stores and gas stations to see the congregation serving their neighbors.

Search committee listens to Texas Baptists

November 12, 2022

The next Baptist General Convention of Texas executive director needs to be an effective and accessible communicator who recognizes the diversity of Texas Baptists, participants in an online forum said.

Trustees, directors and committee nominees presented

November 12, 2022

Nominations to be considered by messengers to the 2022 BGCT annual meeting are presented by the Committee on Committees, Committee to Nominate Executive Board Directors and the Committee on Nominations for Boards of Affiliated Ministries.

TBM brings clean water to Amazon village in Peru

November 12, 2022

A team of seven Texas Baptist Men volunteers helped drill a water well and start a church building for an Amazon River island village in Peru.

BGCT will elect officers, consider $35.46 million budget

November 12, 2022

Messengers to the 2022 Baptist General Convention of Texas annual meeting in Waco will elect officers and consider a $35.46 million budget for next year.

British historian offers observations about Texas Baptists

November 12, 2022

Serving as a visiting professor at Baylor University multiple times the past two decades has allowed David Bebbington to indulge his “hobby”—visiting churches and taking careful notes on what he observes

BGCT honors some of Texas’

BEST educators

November 12, 2022

Texas Baptists recognized nine public school educators as BEST—Baptist Educators Serving Texas.

HSU faculty vote ‘no confidence’ in President Bruntmyer

November 12, 2022

Hardin-Simmons University faculty voted “no confidence” in President Eric Bruntmyer Oct. 26 and called for his termination by HSU trustees.

Pastor reflects on Texas Death Row ministry

November 12, 2022

The first time Pastor Dana Moore set foot behind the walls of a prison was to visit a Texas Death Row inmate.