

Singing Men of Texas mark 50th anniversary

August 20, 2025

The Singing Men of Texas celebrated their 50th anniversary Aug. 15 with a concert at Riverbend Centre in Austin.

Baylor group takes time before school to help flood victims

August 20, 2025

Four students, 17 faculty and staff members, and one alumnus from Baylor University spent a day alongside Texans on Mission volunteers rebuilding homes in flood-devastated San Angelo.

Mexia church experiences new life after dry season

August 20, 2025

Earlier this year, there was dirt in the baptistery at First Baptist Church in Mexia. That's how long it had been since it had been used.

Richardson marriage ministry delivers community impact

August 20, 2025

First Baptist Church of Richardson went without a marriage ministry several years. In 2024, Pastor Ronny Marriott decided it was time to make a change.

Eastland pastor Kevin Burrow nominee for BGCT president

August 20, 2025

Kevin Burrow, senior pastor of First Baptist Church in Eastland, will be nominated for president of the Baptist General Convention of Texas at Texas Baptists' annual meeting, Nov. 16-18 in Abilene.

Doubter finds way back to faith after deconstruction

August 20, 2025

Kara Griffis recalled how, as a university student in the late 1990s studying religion and history, she began to experience “contagious doubts” about her faith.

Lawmaker calls redistricting exodus an act of faith

August 20, 2025

Rep. James Talarico, a seminarian who has joined dozens of other Democratic state legislators in leaving Texas to oppose mid-decade redistricting efforts, said he views their protests as an act of faith, reflecting both his personal beliefs and his faith in democracy.

Ray Gann mastered mass

feeding but found more

August 20, 2025

After 20 years with Texans on Mission's state mass feeding unit, Ray Gann, 71, has retired as the unit's leader.

Late-summer camp offers respite for Hill Country kids

August 20, 2025

Kids from Trinity Baptist Church in Kerrville received a much-needed time of fun and rest following last month's devastating floods in their area.

Hill Country churches mobilize to minister after flood

August 20, 2025

Texas Baptists churches in the Hill Country continue mobilizing members to aid in relief and recovery efforts after the flooding of the Guadalupe River.

WMU serves Brownsville with back-to-school block party

August 20, 2025

Woman's Missionary Union of Texas, in partnership with Send Relief and Texans on Mission, hosted a weekend-long Serve Brownsville back-to-school block party.

Fellowship Southwest leaders oppose redistricting effort

August 20, 2025

Leaders of Fellowship Southwest voiced opposition to the congressional redistricting effort in the special session of the Texas Legislature, calling it a "partisan power grab."