

TBM expects ‘a month’s worth of work’ after hurricane

September 2, 2020

TBM disaster relief crews are working in Southeast Texas to help residents affected by Hurricane Laura, including Pastor Ryan Chandler of Trinity Baptist Church in Orange.

Records reveal R.C. Buckner was a slaveholder

September 2, 2020

Buckner International recently learned 160-year-old records show its long-revered namesake founder, R.C. Buckner, was a slaveholder.

Charges against former Village Church employee dismissed

September 2, 2020

A district court granted the Dallas County District Attorney’s office motion to dismiss criminal charges against Matthew Tonne, a former employee of

The Village Church in Flower Mound, for an alleged sex offense due to “lack of probable cause.”

Missionaries’ impact on family felt across generations

September 2, 2020

Missionaries who served in China around the time of legendary Baptist missionary Lottie Moon’s death indirectly became responsible for several generations of Baptist preachers and lay leaders in Mexico.

TBM disaster relief meets needs after Hurricane Laura

September 2, 2020

Texas Baptist Men disaster relief volunteers are meeting needs of people impacted by Hurricane Laura and beyond.

Mount Lebanon marks ministry milestone during pandemic

September 2, 2020

Mount Lebanon Retreat and Conference Center has made a spiritual impact in the lives of campers for nearly 75 years. But this year's summer camp season has been unlike any previous year in the retreat center's history.

Ministries prepare for Hurricane Laura

September 2, 2020

Texas Baptist Men placed all its disaster relief volunteers on standby and Buckner International ministries evacuated personnel and clients from Beaumont in preparation for Hurricane Laura.

Save HSU representatives meet with university leaders

September 2, 2020

More than six months after Hardin-Simmons University trustees voted to close Logsdon Seminary, top university administrators and several trustees met with two representatives of the Save Hardin-Simmons group.

CommonCall: Deliberately diverse

September 2, 2020

Fielder Church determined it would celebrate differences and seek to become a congregation where no ethnic or cultural group represents more than 50 percent of the multigenerational church family.

Literacy Connexus helps churches adapt ESL during pandemic

September 2, 2020

Church-based English-as-a-Second-Language ministries don't have to end because of the COVID-19 pandemic, but they must adapt and remain flexible, a statewide literacy ministry leader insists.

Amarillo church has equipped internationals for decades

September 2, 2020

Ministering to internationals is nothing new for First Baptist Church in Amarillo. In fact, the current ministry's early roots date back to soon after World War II and the Korean War.

TBM crews meet needs after disasters near and far

September 2, 2020

Texas Baptist Men disaster relief volunteers completed work in the Rio Grande Valley after Hurricane Hanna, responded rapidly when a summer storm damaged trees in North Texas and stood ready to serve after 112 mph winds hit the Midwest.