

Albert Reyes still running toward his Father's voice

February 14, 2020

Helping discouraged families find hope keeps Albert Reyes motivated as he enters his second decade as president of Buckner International.

---

South Dallas church cares for the whole person

February 14, 2020

Beckley Community Church's ministry to families in need grew into a twice-a-month food distribution center that serves between 300 to 400 people, and the number continues to increase.

---

War and peace not abstract or distant issues, ethicist insists

February 14, 2020

When it comes to matters of war and peace, no American Christian is "off the hook," and any attempt to distance the church from that responsibility is both bad theology and poor pastoral ministry, a Baptist ethicist told an audience at Howard Payne University.

---

Burleson Hispanic congregation focuses on missions

February 14, 2020

The histories of First Baptist Church of Burleson and the community it serves are intertwined. The congregation is writing a new chapter in that history now, as it seeks to minister among the city's fast-growing Hispanic population.

---

HSU president: Seminary closing 'solely a financial decision'

February 14, 2020

Closing Logsdon Seminary was "solely a financial decision" reached after an extended period of analysis, discussion and prayer, Hardin-Simmons University President Eric Bruntmyer wrote in a Feb. 12 letter to the "HSU Family."

---

Lilly grant to benefit Center for Financial Health

February 14, 2020

The Baptist General Convention of Texas will receive $1 million from Lilly Endowment Inc. to continue the expansion of the Center for Financial Health, a ministry dedicated to promoting the financial health of pastors.

---

Updated: HSU trustees vote to close Logsdon Seminary

February 14, 2020

Hardin-Simmons University's board of trustees voted to close Logsdon Seminary. (This article was most recently updated at 9 p.m. on Feb. 12 to include additional information.)

---

Alumni, Texas Baptists react to Logsdon Seminary closing

February 14, 2020

Alumni of Logsdon Seminary and many other Texas Baptists expressed shock, sorrow, disappointment and, in some cases, anger about HSU trustees' decision to close the seminary graduate programs.

---

Pastor for the Deaf hears God's call to make disciples

February 14, 2020

To make disciples for Jesus in the Deaf community, Rogelio Rocha believes a Christian mentor must understand from personal experience the distinctive spiritual challenges non-hearing people face.

---

Hardin-Simmons trustees vote to close Logsdon Seminary

February 14, 2020

Hardin-Simmons University's board of trustees voted to close Logsdon

Seminary.

---

Houston church still rebuilding, reaching out after hurricane

February 14, 2020

When Houston Northwest Church recently welcomed children and their families to the congregation's newly constructed HNW Kids Building, it marked a milestone in recovery and rebuilding after Hurricane Harvey.

---

Texas Baptist leaders participate in Rally for Life

February 14, 2020

Baptist General Convention of Texas Executive Director David Hardage and BGCT President Michael Evans addressed a crowd of more than 20,000 people from the steps of the State Capitol during the Texas Rally for Life.