

Power from above—Waco church goes green

August 8, 2017

Lake Shore Baptist Church in Waco spent two weeks installing 140 solar panels on top of the 20th-century building and making other energy-efficient upgrades throughout the building to bring it into the 21st century, said David Mosley, chairman of the church's building and grounds committee.

Read it at the Waco Tribune-Herald.