

TBM volunteers provide meals for firefighters

September 6, 2011

TBM has been asked to cook 5,000 meals per day for the firefighters and first responders on the scene. TBM volunteers will work 24-hour shifts to prepare the meals, according to a notice on the TBM website.

About 30 volunteers serving with the Tarrant Baptist Association feeding unit began providing emergency food service on Labor Day.