

Texas Hope: Port Lavaca Baptists will prayerwalk their city

April 3, 2009

As part of Texas Hope 2010, the congregations of Port Lavaca are coming together to prayerwalk their entire city following Easter.

Led by Alamo Heights Baptist Church and First Baptist Church, the ministerial alliance has taken this effort on as a collaborative initiative. The churches plan to pray for every home on every street in Port Lavaca.

“I want to see us have that time of prayer to use it as a springboard to reach out into the community,” said Mike Gresham, pastor of First Baptist Church.
