

Liberian seminary president denies school property for sale

June 20, 2016

A labor court judge issued a writ of execution June 8 ordering sale of the Liberia Baptist Theological Seminary property to raise money owed to a former president fired in 2007 over philosophical differences with the board of trustees. Seminary officials say the money already has been paid and appealed the order to Liberia's Supreme Court.

Read it in Baptist News Global.