

Questions surround site of ancient Jerusalem

July 11, 2023

Archaeologists debate the location of King David's ancient headquarters in Jerusalem.

Planting churches in Ukraine, minister relies on God

July 11, 2023

Michael Domke spent nearly 15 years planting churches in Ukraine until war forced him out. Today, he typically drives 1,700 miles to several cities in Ukraine from Budapest, Hungary, continuing his work.

God's people sent to be on mission with God

July 11, 2023

God has given his people a mission to come alongside him to stand against the monstrous forces that oppose "God's homemaking project," theologian

Miroslav Volf told participants at the Sent 2023 Mission Summit.

Hundreds of Christians killed in Nigeria, churches destroyed

July 11, 2023

At least 450 Christians have died in a series of attacks on Christian villages in three north central Nigerian states since May.

Biden urged to discuss human rights in India with Modi

July 11, 2023

The U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom urged President Biden to raise concerns about religious freedom and human rights during Prime Minister Modi's state visit.

Violence, persecution continue in India's Manipur State

July 11, 2023

More than a month after mob violence began in the Manipur State of northeast India, at least 250 churches have been burned, and casualty reports grow daily.

Ukrainian Baptists convert missile into pulpit

July 11, 2023

Ukrainian Baptists may not be beating swords into plowshares yet, but some have started by converting a weapon of war into a pulpit to proclaim the gospel of peace.

Sixteen abducted Nigerian Baptists released

July 11, 2023

Sixteen members of Bege Baptist Church of Masala in central Nigeria were released June 4 after being kidnapped nearly a month earlier.

TBM responds to Ukraine flood, India train tragedies

July 11, 2023

When a dam in Ukraine was destroyed and a deadly train crash in India left vast humanitarian and spiritual needs, TBM responded to both tragedies through existing local partnerships.

ETBU student-athletes share faith in Northern Ireland

July 11, 2023

East Texas Baptist University women's basketball team taught sports skills to schoolchildren, competed and shared their faith on a recent trip to Northern Ireland.

Children die in Sudan orphanage as fighting blocks aid

July 11, 2023

At least 60 infants and children have died in a Khartoum orphanage since the civil conflict began in Sudan, the Associated Press reported May 31 amid an extended ceasefire to facilitate humanitarian aid.

TBM offers psychological support for families from Ukraine

July 11, 2023

TBM sent a psychotherapist to a women's conference in Warsaw, Poland, to lead sessions on emotional healing and overcoming post-traumatic stress.