

Mexican Baptists move when authorities fail to honor rights

November 22, 2024

Members of a Baptist church in Mexico's Hidalgo State who were displaced in April have moved to neighboring Veracruz State after local officials failed to honor their religious freedom rights, an international human rights group reported.

West Bank Christian leads resistance to seizure of land

November 22, 2024

A group of Israeli Jews said Sabbath prayers as the sun set in Al-Makhrour, a valley outside of Beit Jala in the West Bank.

Israel likely to have a longtime advocate as ambassador

November 22, 2024

If confirmed by the Senate, Mike Huckabee may be the first political appointee to come to the U.S. Embassy in Israel from a group known as Christian Zionists, who back Israel for theological as well as geopolitical reasons.

Trump taps Huckabee as ambassador to Israel

November 22, 2024

President-elect Donald Trump announced Nov. 12 he will appoint former Arkansas Gov. Mike Huckabee—a Baptist minister—as ambassador to Israel during Trump’s second administration.

Texans on Mission helps church respond to Spain flooding

November 22, 2024

More than 200 have died in flooding around Valencia, Spain, in recent days, and Texans on Mission volunteers are helping respond to the need.

Religious minorities continue to be targeted in Burma

November 22, 2024

Myanmar—historically known as Burma—is “a disintegrating nation” where leaders of religious minorities continue to be targeted by the military, a report from the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom stated.

Desperately seek God’s presence, imprisoned pastor urges

November 22, 2024

“Can God trust you?” if you are called to pay a price for following Jesus, an American pastor who was imprisoned in Turkey asked.

Ministry offers aid to 4,000

civilians in besieged Gaza

November 22, 2024

Christian Mission to Gaza recently has provided food and clean drinking water to more than 4,000 people in the war-torn country, the former pastor of Gaza Baptist Church reported.

DBU gathering urges prayer for the persecuted

November 22, 2024

Dallas Baptist University's Institute for Global Engagement hosted a global gathering to pray for persecuted religious minorities, Oct. 24-25.

Baylor uses sports to empower women in Pakistan

November 22, 2024

In a culture where women often are marginalized and women's sports are not recognized, a Baylor University group found ways to empower women by using sports to teach leadership skills.

Nigerian pastor risks life to evangelize Muslims

November 22, 2024

Pastor Eli Abdullah Tinau lives in the charred room that remains of his home after an attack by militant Fulani Muslims, an increasingly violent group accused of killing thousands of Christians in middle and northeastern Nigeria.

‘I needed a miracle,’ living Christian martyr recalls

November 22, 2024

As the young Sudanese child, Mariam Ibraheem never planned to end up in the United States, but God had other plans.