

Ukrainian Baptists minister in midst of conflict

March 28, 2022

One month after Russia invaded Ukraine, Christians are delivering humanitarian aid and helping to evacuate endangered residents in eastern part of the nation that has been most hard-hit by shelling, the European Baptist Federation reported.

Advocate says war in Ukraine may leave millions hungry

March 28, 2022

Eugene Cho, president and CEO of the Bread for the World Christian advocacy group, knows the war in Ukraine will have consequences for the rest of the world—especially those already facing food insecurity.

Russian radio station

continuing to broadcast gospel

March 28, 2022

Despite a variety of challenges resulting from the ongoing war, a Christian radio station broadcasting to Slavic nations has continued its gospel ministry, this time from Romania.

Access to clean water promotes peacemaking

March 28, 2022

Dee Dee Wint, leader of Texas Baptist Men's international water ministry, believes providing access to clean water promotes peacemaking, and it offers a tangible expression of God's love.

Aid arrives in seven formerly unreached Ukrainian cities

March 28, 2022

Previously unreached areas in Ukraine's besieged eastern region received the first delivery of humanitarian aid coordinated by Ukrainian Baptists, the European Baptist Federation reported March 17.

Polish Christians caring for refugees ‘take Jesus seriously’

March 28, 2022

More than 60 percent of the 110 Baptist churches in Poland are responding to the needs of Ukrainian refugees, many of them in dramatic ways. Texas Baptists are helping play a supporting role.

British Christians urge wide welcome of Ukrainian refugees

March 28, 2022

An ecumenical group of 52 member bodies in England, including the Baptist Union of Great Britain, urged the United Kingdom and other European nations to follow the lead of Ukraine’s immediate neighbors in welcoming refugees from that besieged nation.

Christian leaders ask Kirill to urge end of war in Ukraine

March 28, 2022

More than 100 U.S. Christian leaders, including the leaders of multiple denominations, sent a letter to the head of the Russian Orthodox Church on March 11 asking him to use his influence to help stop the invasion of Ukraine and “prayerfully reconsider the support you have given to this war.”

State of emergency the new normal at Ukraine seminary

March 28, 2022

With Russian air raids just 100 miles northeast of Ukraine Baptist Theological Seminary in Lviv, President Yaroslav “Slavik” Pyzh is challenged to live in a state of emergency as the new normal.

Mariupol Baptist church

basement serves as bomb shelter

March 28, 2022

As Russian forces intensify their bombardment of Mariupol, hundreds of citizens have sought shelter in the basement of a Ukrainian Baptist church.

CERI offers relief to Ukrainian refugees in Moldova

March 28, 2022

Children's Emergency Relief International is supporting the Baptist Union of Moldova and its churches in efforts to feed and house refugees from Ukraine.

Ukrainian Baptists persevere as war escalates

March 28, 2022

In spite of escalating Russian attacks and diminishing supplies, more than 600 Baptist churches in Ukraine are offering refuge to displaced people, responding to the needs of people seeking to travel to safety.