

Mexican Baptists in Hidalgo forced from homes

April 30, 2024

More than 100 Baptists in Hidalgo State, Mexico, were forced to leave their homes in the villages of Coamila and Rancho Nuevo on April 26.

Kachin Baptist leader detained after brief release

April 30, 2024

A Kachin Baptist leader in Myanmar who briefly was released from prison last week after 16 months behind bars was taken into custody again by authorities and continued to be detained a week later.

More Christians join in urging support for Ukraine

April 30, 2024

More than a dozen Christian leaders—including the executive director of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention—sent a letter to U.S. House Speaker

Mike Johnson April 17 urging Congress to protect religious liberty in Eastern Europe by supporting Ukraine.

Kachin Baptist leader released from Myanmar prison

April 30, 2024

Hkalam Samson, former president and general secretary of the Kachin Baptist Convention in Myanmar, has been released from Myitkyina Prison in Burma's Kachin State.

Lott Carey expresses solidarity with Haitians during crisis

April 30, 2024

Lott Carey, a historically Black Baptist missional organization, expressed “unwavering solidarity with the people of Haiti during this time of unprecedented crisis.”

Ukrainian evangelicals urge Speaker Johnson to vote

April 30, 2024

In a March 26 letter, the Ukraine Council of Evangelical Protestant Churches urged U.S. House Speaker Mike Johnson to vote on providing aid.

Baptist leaders urge House Speaker to support Ukraine

April 30, 2024

Some Baptist leaders have written to U.S. House Speaker Mike Johnson—a fellow Southern Baptist—urging him to support Ukraine in Russia’s war against its Eastern European neighbor.

Global religious freedom able to draw bipartisan support

April 30, 2024

Elected officials who differ on most issues broadly agree about the importance of global freedom of religion and belief, two former ambassadors-at-large for international religious freedom asserted.

Questions surround killing of Kachin Baptist minister

April 30, 2024

Unanswered questions continue to surround the violent death of a Baptist minister in northern Myanmar's Kachin state.

Texans on Mission responds to urgent needs in Haiti

April 30, 2024

Texans on Mission's long-time ministry partner in Haiti shifted gears in recent days to respond to immediate hunger needs.

Gaza Baptists ‘no longer have the energy to suffer’

April 30, 2024

Baptists sheltered in the remnants of Gaza Baptist Church are so worn out they “no longer have the energy to suffer,” a leader there told the Christian Mission to Gaza.

Christian medical ministry in Haiti repels armed attackers

April 30, 2024

Nearly a dozen gunmen attacked the LiveBeyond ministry compound about 20 miles outside Port-au-Prince March 21.