

Editorial: Ash Wednesday's word for current elections

February 18, 2026

Ash Wednesday has a word for us as we vote in the primary elections this year. We should heed its message and put it into practice.

---

Voices: Christian citizenship amid immigration fears

February 18, 2026

In response to immigration concerns, Joel Suárez reminds the church to be formed by its citizenship in God's kingdom.

---

Voces: Ciudadanía cristiana en una era de miedo a la inmigración

February 18, 2026

En respuesta a las preocupaciones migratorias, Joel Suárez recuerda a la iglesia que debe formarse por su ciudadanía en el reino de Dios.

---

Commentary: When the church picks teams

February 18, 2026

In response to Christians choosing political sides, Nick Acker calls them back to unified love and community as Christian witness.

---

Editorial: How not to diminish God's image

February 18, 2026

In the beginning, we were created in God's image. Rather than diminish God's image in each other, let's see it and celebrate it.

---

Voices: Our witness requires courageous response to racism

February 18, 2026

Wade Berry responds to the racist video posted on President Donald Trump's Truth Social account and calls Christians to God-honoring response.

---

Voices: Bad Bunny, belonging, and my Baptist upbringing

February 18, 2026

Chris Seay sees Bad Bunny's Super Bowl halftime performance as a celebration of diversity the church and the nation can appreciate.

---

Editorial: Our family is afraid to go to church

February 18, 2026

Editor Eric Black calls Texas Baptists to stand with their immigrant Christian family and provides a brief list of resources.

---

Voces: Amar al extranjero en tiempos de temor

February 18, 2026

El Dr. Pablo Juárez habla sobre “el profundo miedo y la inestabilidad que existen en las comunidades de inmigrantes” y hace un llamado a la iglesia para que los cuide con espíritu de sacrificio.

---

Voices: Loving the stranger in a time of fear

February 18, 2026

Dr. Pablo Juárez discusses “the deep fear and instability within immigrant communities” and calls the church to sacrificially care for them.

---

Commentary: A call to # remember our own sojourn

February 18, 2026

Scripture and the Lord of Scripture call the individual, the church, and the nation to remember their own sojourn and not to oppress others.

---

Voices: A great weight loss program for $35

February 18, 2026

Johnny Teague shares a weight loss secret he's sure will make him millions of dollars and put him on the Walk of Fame.