

Letters: ‘In God We Trust’ and Online Databases

April 17, 2018

Readers weigh in on ‘The problem with “In God We Trust”’ and online databases of churches.

Letters: Gun control and mental illness

April 17, 2018

In this week’s letter to the editor, a reader shares her thoughts on gun control and mental illness.

Letters: ‘Theological gatekeeping’

April 17, 2018

One reader replies to another reader’s response regarding ‘theological gatekeeping’ in the wake of CBF’s changed hiring policy.

Letters: Local church autonomy; Second amendment; Inerrancy

April 17, 2018

Baptist Standard readers respond to recent articles about local church autonomy and acceptance of LGBT people, the gun control debate, and the inerrancy of the Bible.

Letters: CBF lifts LGBT ban

April 17, 2018

A letter to the editor regarding the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship's recent decision to lift a ban on hiring LGBT people for some posts.

Letters: About inerrancy

April 17, 2018

A Baptist Standard reader responds to Ross Shelton's article, 'How I came to affirm inerrancy.’

Letters: Commending Stone

April 17, 2018

A reader responds to Meredith Stone’s response to an article by John Piper concerning women teaching in seminaries.

Letters: Trump’s words

April 17, 2018

Baptist Standard readers share their comments on recent events.

Letters: Applause for Steve Vernon

April 17, 2018

Baptist Standard readers react to Steve Vernon’s recent “Deep in the Hearts of Texans” interview.

Letters: Explore the Bible; Tax plan; Abuse suit

April 17, 2018

Baptist Standard readers weigh in on Bible study lessons, the new tax law and a sex abuse suit.

Letters to the Editor: Sex abuse suit

April 17, 2018

This week's letter to the editor concerns Paul Pressler, the subject of a sex abuse lawsuit

Letter to the Editor: Taxing the poor

April 17, 2018

One reader believes the Senate Republican tax bill goes too far.