

Letter: How would an Afghan refugee fare in your church?

August 30, 2021

A Baptist Standard reader responds to Editor Eric Black's editorial about how churches and Christians might receive Afghan refugees.

Letters: Vaccines, Baylor's mace, slavery, racism

August 30, 2021

A Baptist Standard reader exhorts others to receive the COVID-19 vaccine. Four other readers respond to recent articles on slavery and voting.

Letter: Baylor alum expresses concern about her alma mater

August 30, 2021

A Baylor University graduate expresses her concern related to her alma mater's position on race and LGBTQ.

Letter: Texas politicians paid by gender clinics

August 30, 2021

A Baptist Standard reader calls out Texas politicians who received contributions from PACs affiliated with gender clinics.

Letter: Editorial: Is that what freedom means?

August 30, 2021

A Baptist Standard reader responds to an editorial by Editor Eric Black on defining freedom.

Letter: Saddleback Church

ordains three women, draws criticism

August 30, 2021

A Baptist Standard reader responds to an article by Bob Smietana of Religion News Service about Saddleback Church's ordination of women.

Letters: Editorial: For Christians, public policy is about love of neighbor

August 30, 2021

Baptist Standard readers respond to Editor Eric Black's contention that public policy can be an expression of love of neighbor.

Letter: Baptist leaders react to Chauvin guilty verdict

August 30, 2021

A Baptist Standard reader challenges Baptist leaders also to pray for Derek Chauvin and his family as they pray for George Floyd's family.

Letter: New doubts over Southern Baptists' limits on women's roles

August 30, 2021

A Baptist Standard reader responds to a recent report about responses among Southern Baptist women to the SBC's doctrine about women.

Letter: Baylor reckons with painful information about founders

August 30, 2021

A Baptist Standard reader responds to Baylor University's examination of its founders' views on race, citing similar news for the Churches of Christ.

Letters: Beth Moore: Southern Baptist no more

August 30, 2021

Baptist Standard readers respond to Beth Moore's announcement she is "no longer Southern Baptist," though still Baptist.

Letter: Voices: Serious problems revealed by the ERLC Task Force report

August 30, 2021

A Baptist Standard reader responds to Jamey L. Yaden's take on the ERLC Task Force report alleging serious problems with the SBC agency.