

Commentary: We need an Evangelical Board of Peace

February 20, 2026

Wissam al-Saliby, 21Wilberforce president, proposes the formation of an Evangelical Board of Peace as an embodiment of God's righteousness.

Commentary: When the church picks teams

February 20, 2026

In response to Christians choosing political sides, Nick Acker calls them back to unified love and community as Christian witness.

Commentary: A call to remember our own sojourn

February 20, 2026

Scripture and the Lord of Scripture call the individual, the church, and the nation to remember their own sojourn and not to oppress others.

Commentary: Why Burma's Christians need the world to act now

February 20, 2026

Representatives of Burma Research Institute explain why Baptists should advocate on behalf of Burmese Christians in the U.S. and Burma/Myanmar.

Commentary: Disciple-making: Tensions in Baptist identity, Part 8

February 20, 2026

Wade Berry concludes his series examining the gifts of Baptist distinctives and some of the challenges they face.

Commentary: Brazil: From mission field to mission force

February 20, 2026

Diego Silva explains how Christianity is changing in Brazil and what that may mean for the rest of the world.

Commentary: Local autonomy: Tensions in Baptist identity, Part 7

February 20, 2026

Wade Berry considers how the somewhat straightforward concept of local autonomy has resulted in complications for Baptists.

Commentary: Apologetics was never about winning

February 20, 2026

Taylor Standridge issues a corrective to the modern approach to apologetics that returns to the full text of 1 Peter 3:15.

Commentary: How to support women in ministry

February 20, 2026

Mandy McMichael offers “one simple suggestion” to those who support women in any and all forms of ministry.

Commentary: Religious liberty: Tensions in Baptist identity, Part 6

February 20, 2026

Wade Berry examines the interrelationship of two sometimes-controversial Baptist principles—soul competency and religious freedom.

Commentary: Priesthood: Tensions in Baptist identity, Part 5

February 20, 2026

Wade Berry delves into the significance and place of the priesthood of the believer, a biblically based and historic Baptist doctrine.

Commentary: Ukrainian churches serving the wounded

February 20, 2026

Denys Gorenkov shares the Ukraine he sees as demonstrated by churches coming together to care for fellow Ukrainians.